

1388.

Membrane 10—cont.

and marriage 100s. only by equal portions at Michaelmas and Easter next; with clause touching maintenance of buildings etc. The said mainpernors and farmer are jointly bound to the king, by a recognisance made in the Exchequer, in 10*l.* to be paid at the king's will in the event of failure by the farmer to pay the 100s. within a month after the said terms.

By bill of the treasurer.

March 20.
Westminster.

Appointment of the king's clerk, William de Horbury, and John de Aston, escheator in the counties of Devon and Cornwall, to sell as advantageously as possible, by survey of John Kentwode, 'chivaler,' all the goods in the said counties late of Robert Tresilian, 'chivaler,' John Cary, 'chivaler,' and John Blake, which are forfeit to the king by reason of certain judgements rendered in the present Parliament; provided that they answer at the Exchequer for the proceeds of the said sale.

By bill of the treasurer.

May 24.
Westminster.

Commission in like terms to Thomas Kempe, escheator in the counties of Kent and Middlesex, and Robert Kent, to arrange for the sale of all the goods in the said counties late of Robert Bealknap, 'chivaler,' Simon de Burley, 'chivaler,' and James Berners, 'chivaler.'

By bill of the treasurer.

Commission to Robert Kent and John Olyvere, escheator in the counties of Surrey and Sussex, to appraise by the oath of good and lawful men all the goods in the said counties late of the bishop of Chichester, Robert Bealknap, 'chivaler,' and James Berners, 'chivaler,' and to arrange for their sale as advantageously as possible; provided etc. as above.

By bill of the treasurer.

June 2.
Westminster.

Order to Robert de la Lee, escheator in the county of Stafford, to cause all the goods and lands late of John Salesbury, 'chivaler,' which are forfeit to the king by reason of a judgement rendered against John in the present Parliament, to be taken into the king's hand without delay and answered for to the king.

And the sheriff of Stafford is ordered to deliver all the said goods in his bailiwick to the escheator, if he has taken them into the king's hand, and to meddle therewith no further.

June 2.
Westminster.

Commission to Richard Thurgrym, escheator in the county of Worcester, to arrange for the sale of all the goods in the said county late of John Beauchamp of Holt, 'chivaler,' Nicholas Brembre, 'chivaler,' and John Salesbury, 'chivaler,' which pertain to the king by reason of judgements rendered in the present Parliament; provided that they answer at the Exchequer for the proceeds of such sale.

By bill of the treasurer.

May 28.
Westminster.

Order to the sheriffs of London to cause all the goods in their bailiwick late of Robert Tresilian, 'chivaler,' and John Cary,