Dear Clarence:

Thanks for the list of names. I'll use it.

Della Belnap and I are working on the list of children of Joseph Belknap and Abigail House. I think we may now have the complete list of their 14 children. When as and if Della and I agree on it, one of us will send you a copy.

Cordially.

Willis Clayton Belknap, the enterprising and successful editor of the Bellows Falls Times, was born in the town of Berlin, Vermont, April 7, 1866.

Joseph Belknap, grandfather of Willis C. Belknap, was a prominent resident of Berlin, Vermont, where for a number of years he was engaged in the occupation of farming. He married Miss Abigail House, niece of Captain Israel House, one of the wealthy land owners of the town of Berlin and who erected the first brick residence there, which structure is still standing (1903). Mr. & Mrs. Joseph Belknap became the parents of 14 children. Mr. Belknap died July 25, 1840, his wife, March 5, 1860. Their remains are interred in the old East Street burying grounds.

John Quincy Adams Belknap, father of Willis C. Belknap was born in Williamstown, Orange County, Vermont, Oct. 31, 1831. He acquired his education in the village school and subsequently was engaged in cultivation of the soil. He was one of the representative men of the town and took an active part in all matters that pertained to its welfare and advancement. He was a faithful and zealous member of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Berlin. He married Miss Susan A. Richardson, daughter of Lyssander Richardson, and two sons and three daughters were born to them: Willis Clayton Belknap; Della May, wife of F. H. Nichols, a prosperous farmer of Barre, Vermont; Ida H., wife of Jason E. Martin, a successful farmer of Williamstown, Vt. and they have two children, Gladys and Marian; Charles B. Belknap a farmer of Berlin, Vt. and Beattie H. wife of Dean K. Lillie, a stone-cutter of Montpelier, Vt.

Mr. John Q. A. Belknap died Oct. 5, 1897 at the age of 63 and his wife passed away July 17, 1883 at the age of 48 years.

Willis Clayton Belknap, eldest child of John Q. Adams and Susan A. Belknap, spent his boyhood and youth on his father's farm and attended the public schools in the village. When he had attained the age of 17 years he entered Vt. Methodist Seminary at Montpelier, and was graduated from the classical course of that institution with the class of 1888. During one year of the latter period he served as principal of the public schools of Berlin, Vt.. In the Fall of 1888 he became a student at Dartmouth College, from which he graduated in 1892 with the degree of Bachelor of Arts. He was an excellent debater and was and editor on the "Dartmouth Literary Monthly" during his junior and senior years, being the managing editor during the senior year. He was chosen call president for commencement and has been elected to that office at all class reunions held since. During his collegiate course, Mr. B. taught two terms of school and in other ways earned money to defray his expenses at college. In the early part of his senior year in college Mr. B. registered as a law student in the office of Hon. Frank Plumley in Northfield, Vt. and in Oct. 1892, matriculated in the law school of the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor, where he completed a two year course of study in one year, graduating in June 1893, with the degree of Bachelor of Laws. Shortly afterward he located in Chattanooga, Tennessee, was admitted to the Chattanooga bar and soon after became court reporter for the Chattanooga Daily Times, remaining on the staff of that paper until he returned to Vermont and in company with Lewis P. Thayer purchased the Bellevue Falls Times, the only paper published in Bellevue Falls and the recognized Republican organ of the vicinity. It has a circulation of upward of three thousand, one of the largest in the state and ranking fifth or sixth in point of weekly circulation. In November, 1896, Mr. Thayer sold out his interest in the paper to Mr. Belknap, who is now the sole editor and proprietor, succeeding A. W. Emerson as editor. Every measure and movement tending to benefit the public welfare receives his endorsement and support, and he is widely recognized as a valued and progressive citizen. He is a member of the Masonic order, Knights of Pythias, and Grange. He is a member and vestryman of Immanuel Episcopal Church of Bellevue Falls.

Mr. Belknap is one of the board of directors of the Bellows Falls Trust Co.

On April 6, 1898, Mr. Belknap was united in marriage to Miss Kettie May Carpenter, Daughter of Ward B. Carpenter, of Bellows Falls, Vermont. Two children have been born to them: Paul Carpenter Belknap, born Feb. 8, 1899, and Caroline May Belknap born April 7, 1902.

Dear Cousin:

I'm most grateful for your letter 8/31 and its helpful enclosures.

From your sheet for Joseph Belknap and Abigail House, I judge you can use information about his children. So I'm enclosing copies of the notes ~~of~~ left by Henry Wyckoff Belknap, on this subject. As they are copies of copies, they are not as legible as might be wished, but perhaps you can read them well enough.

Only one of those sheets -- the one for Scott B. Belknap -- has yet been revised. So I'll welcome any corrections you can propose.

Thank you for the address of Richard Belknap, Barre Vt. I'll write to him. And to Lora Belknap. I'm trying to bring the family record up to date. I'll tell them that I have sent to you the lineage of the Joseph who married Abigail House. (His sister Eunice, by the way, married Zelah House, brother of Abigail; hence the recurrence on the name Zela (or Zelah) in your family.

I'm sending copies of your sheets and the copies of HWB sheets to Dick Taylor, for possible use the next time he revises his chart.

You won't find any books on Belknaps, by Henry Wyckoff Belknap. The books he published were professional genealogies of other families. His published work on Belknap genealogy ~~materially~~ consists solely of what is in old volumes of New England Historical and Genealogical Register, 1914 and 1931 -- the English ancestry. One of these days I'll write what I believe is probably the correct interpretation of the evidence he assembled; for he simply stated facts and forebore comment on their meaning. In a letter to a friend, he said: ~~XXXX~~ "It is impossible to say whether they were Belknaps or Beltofts." I don't agree with that judgment.

His work on American Belknaps was incomplete, though he left thousands of pages of material. In 1926, when he was 60 and was overburdened by his duties as curator of Essex Institute, he wrote: "I no longer have the time or strength to carry it on. Someone else will ~~me~~ have to carry on." So his files lay untouched till 1967, when I got hold of them. I'm trying to be that "someone else."

Cordially,

I'm looking forward to receiving your records on your cousins.

Dear Mr. Belknap,

Started this letter and information some time ago. Had the misfortune to be taken sick and had to spend several weeks in the hospital so the finished product had to be delayed.

Am sending you a little outline of the Belknap family. Knew all of the second generation that I have outlined on paper for you and much more detail but too much work to do. These with their spouses have all passed away. Also know the descendants which I have named.

Frances, Norman and Ralph live in or near Montpelier. Robert Nichols lives on Eastern Ave. in Barre, Vt. I know him very well as when we were children he lived across the road. There were eight of us and Robert was the only child so he was at my parents home a large part of the time.

He came in and I showed him your letter. He told me who his grandfather was and where he lived so easily connected up the whole thing.

Have copied a lot of data from the cemeteries and town clerk's office. Cannot find any mention of a Belknap. From 1830 to 1860 in Vermont there was no law to compel the parents to register the name of the births and there are few records of the names of children born in this period. You would be more likely to find the dates on marriage licenses or family Bibles.

Robert was coming back and probably would have given me information I did not have but was not here but do not think he knew anything about your line nor back of his grandfather. However you could ask him.

Sincerely,

E.

Dear Mr Belknap:

Through roundabout channels your letter to Sam Belknap Aug 3 has come to me, as I am attempting to compile a Belknap genealogy. I'm glad to answer it, for there are ways in which you can help me -- please.

The best record of your lineage appears to be in the ~~XXXX~~ work done by Henry Wyckoff Belknap in the first quarter of this century. So I attach a summary based on that source. Though some early dates are subject to possible question, I'm sure that this summary is substantially accurate, down to your grandfather George Washington Belknap.

At that point, HWB's notes differ from your own record, and ~~xx~~ are very sketchy and incomplete. As you will see, he shows a marriage to Lavinia P Corey "of Moorestown, Vt." No other data on her. From his source, Vital Records of Berlin, Vt., he shows birth of four children, as follows:

A dau. b Berlin, Vt 10 March 1868, died same day
George Russell Belknap, b Berlin July 1870
A dau. b Berlin 22 Dec 1871
A dau. b Berlin 18 Dec 1873

first wife
(I think this was a misidentification by HWB. From his notes, it seems that the Berlin VR show only initials "G. W." HWB apparently thought this Belknap was your grandfather. Error, I think.)

2nd wife
You show marriage in 1867 to Alice Ann Campbell.

I'll be grateful if you'll straighten this out for me, giving me all available data on marriage ~~xxx~~ and all children of your grandfather (including their marriages and what you know about their descendants).

Plus the same information on all children of your father, Raymond Belknap.

And the record of your own children -- for I'm trying to bring the family history down to present generations.

Another point: HWB's notes show a brother of your grandfather: Joseph Sullivan Belknap, born Barre Vt 10 Oct 1818 (first child of Joseph and Abigail House). Is this correct?

Sincerely,

Carroll Y Belknap:

I enclose also a copy of my summary of the known facts about Abraham -- the first Belknap in America -- ancestor of all American members of the family. Most of the facts about his English ancestry are in New England Historical & Genealogical Register, 1914, 1931, 1950 -- which can be found in almost any public library -- if you haven't already read it.

MR. CARROLL YORK BELKNAP
25 CLUB ROAD
RIVERSIDE, CONN. 06878

DEAR MR. BELKNAP,

THANKS SO MUCH FOR YOUR INFORMATION ON MY BELKNAPS.
I HAVE NOT RUN ACROSS ANY BOOK OR MATERIAL BY HENRY
WYKOFF BELKNAP. HE IS CORRECT ABOUT GEORGE WASHINGTON
BELKNAP. I SENT OUT THE WRONG DATE FOR HIS MARRIAGE
TO ALICE ANN CAMPBELL. HE WAS MARRIED FIRST TO LAVINIA
P. COREY ABOUT 1867 AND THE CHILDREN LISTED ARE CORRECT.
THEN THEY MOVED TO IOWA WHERE LAVINIA DIED ABOUT 1882
(WHEN HER SON RUSSELL WAS 11 YRS OLD.). THE FAMILY MOVED TO KANSAS AND THEN TO MISSOURI AND ABOUT 1888 GEORGE WASHINGTON MARRIED ALICE ANN CAMPBELL. I AM SENDING YOU FAMILY GROUP SHEETS ON THEM.

I HAVE A LETTER FROM A COUSIN MYRTLE MITCHELL AND
SHE REMEMBERED HEARING ON AN UNCLE JOE BELKNAP. MY DAD MENTIONED A SCOTT BELKNAP BUT I DONT KNOW ABOUT BROTHERS OR SISTERS.

WHEN WE WERE IN BERLIN, VT. IN 1966 WE MET RICHARD
BELKNAP WHO LIVES IN BARRE, VT. AT TROW HILL, RT. 1 05641.
HE WAS A GRANDSON OF JOHN QUINCY ADAMS BELKNAP.

I ALSO WROTE IN 1967 TO MISS LORA B. BELKNAP OF
97 NEW STREET, MARSHFIELD 02050 (SHE WAS 80 YRS OLD THEN) AND
HER GRANDFATHER WAS ZELA BELKNAP, AND HE HAD BROTHERS SCOTT AND ORA N. BELKNAP. WHILE IN BERLIN
WE FOUND A LAND DEED, IN THE TOWN CLERKS OFFICE, TRANSFERRING
LAND IN BERLIN FROM ORA N. BELKNAP OF DUXBURY, PLYMOUTH CO,
MASS. TO JOHN QUINCY ADAMS AND GEORGE WASHINGTON
BELKNAP.

IF YOU DO NOT HAVE INFORMATION FROM MISS LORA B. BELKNAP I WILL BE GLAD TO SEND YOU A COPY OF HER LETTER.

IF YOU FIND ANYTHING NEW ON MY DIRECT LINE I WOULD APPRECIATE KNOWING ABOUT IT. I CERTAINLY DO THANK YOU AGAIN FOR YOUR HELP AND IF I CAN GIVE YOU ANY FURTHER INFORMATION I WOULD BE GLAD TO DO SO.

SINCERELY,

Clarence E. Belknap
