Nade to Receive the President.

THE CHAMBER MEETS.

A Committee Appointed to Give a Reception--Territorial Arrangements

This morning hand bills were distri buted around town calling a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce at 10:15 a At that hour led. The pres-d that it had m. at the Court House. about fifteen had assembled. The pres-ident, R. H. Dood, stated that it had been deemed advisable by a number of the members to call a meeting for the purpose of arranging as a body for co-operation with the Mayor's committee to give a fitting reception to Fresident Harrison on his arrival and brief stay tomorrow. It had been suggested, he said, that a general invitation be given citizens throughout the county, to attend the reception in this city. Judge J. D. Jones moved that the chair appoint a committee of five members to unite and work with the City committee in giving a suitable reception to President Harrison. The chair appointed the following: J. D. Jones, A. D. Gash, W. H. Dus-enberry, D. D. Houtz and M. M. Kel-logg as the committee. County Superintendent Wilson stated that the public schools intended to be out on parade, and would like the Chamber to assign the schools a place in about fifteen had assembled.
