imously adopted: Resolved, wat we unqualifiedly com-mend and endorse the administration of President Harrison. We congratulate the Republican party and the nation at large, on the passage and successful operation of the Republican tariff, known as the Mo-Kinley bill; and especially on that por-tion of it, known as the reciprocity clause, which has so largely increased the markets open to the manufacturers, farmers and producers of our country The market open to the manufacturers, farmers and producers of our country and has already turned the balance of trade se laagely in our favor. We commend the administration of the state department for its dignified, of of dignified, fishery question on the New England, fishery question on the New England coast, upon the successful conclusion of the Samoan treaty, upon the success-ful and peaceful termination of the Chilful and peaceful termination of the Chil-ean diffi.ulty with the pen, without the aid of the sword; and upon its firm bear-ing on the Behring test controversy with Great Britain. We are heartily in fayor of the free coinage of American silver. We strenuously object to any tinker-ing with the tariff and recommend that no backward siers be taken A proper protective tariff on wool and lead, and the encouragement of the manufacture
