

79

steep we circled around and passed the same station three times,
We sure enjoyed the sights.

At a quarter to three we pulled in at the station at home in Ogden, but O how flat and queer the town looked compared with the large citys and buildings we had seen, but yet be it ever so humble there is no place like home. We arrived home very tired but happy having thereby enjoyed our trip.

Copied from Anna Constance Belnap's record book by Arias G.
Belnap--June 17, 1953.