

Commissioner's Court.

Yesterday, Levi W. Wheeler was brought before Commissioner Felshaw upon a charge of being accessory to the stealing of a cow. Mr. Nathan Tanner appeared for the prosecution, Mr. Kimball for the defense. A demurrer was entered to the complaint, which was overruled by the commissioner and the further hearing of the case was set for next Tuesday morning, at 10 o'clock.

As we go to press a trial is going on before Commissioner Felshaw. Mr. G. Belnap, son of Gilbert Belnap, Esq., of Hooper, is accused of using a certain party roughly. We will give further particulars at the close of the examination.

A nice little row at a certain restaurant on Main Street, this morning. Fuss about a lease—two females and two males—clubs, coffee, etc., for four—lawyers appeared to—writs issued—each party got the "lawful side" of the affair—interesting developments expected, and all that kind of thing—To be continued (probably) in our next.
