

Theatre.

Last evening a good house greeted the last performance of the Hasenwinkle company. "The Old Curiosity Shop" was well played, and gave satisfaction to all present.

This morning the troupe proceeded to Salt Lake, at which place they will play for three nights. We can recommend the company to our Salt Lake friends.

ATTEMPT was made, last night, to burgharize the Court House. Mr. G. Belnap, assessor and collector, who was sleeping in the building, awoke by the noise made, and his movements to investigate the matter scared the would-be burglars who made their escape.