Ogden was incorporated by act of the Territorial Legislature, approved January 18th, 1861. Municipal Elections occur biennially (odd years) on the second Monday in February. Present population, 7,000.

The City is situated in the delta of the Weber and the Ogden rivers, and commands a magnificent view of the picturesque valley of which it forms the principal though a marginal feature, lying as it does at the foot of the Wasatch mountains, and within easy communication and sight of nearly every other settlement within the basin.

The City is divided into four municipal wards, each of which is represented in the Common Council by an Alderman chosen from the ward by the electors of the City at large, which latter also choose at the same time a complete list of city officials, being at present as follows:
