"Electricity is Life."

The Chief Medical Electrician of the American Galvanic Company is sojourning at the Junction City Hotel in this place and will remain until Saturday evening August 6th 1881. He has a full line of the Medical Electric Appliances manufactured by that company for the cure of all diseases of the nervous system. These Galvanic Batteries or Electric Appliances are worn on the body next to the skin and produce a constant mild flow of electricity which passes to every part of the system, causing a gentle exhilaration of all the faculties and functions of the body. They are used for the cure of neuralgia, paralysis or palsy, epileptic fits, sleeplessness, dizziness, cramps, hypochondria or blues, night terrors, rheumatism, dyspepsia or indigestion, liver complaint, constipation, nervous headache, pain in the back, diseases of the kidneys, and many other diseases caused by a weak or disordered nervous system. The Medical Electrician of the American Galvanic Company is a thorough scientific as well as practical electrician of twenty-five years' experience in this profession and may be consulted on all subjects pertaining to diseases of the human system, on fee being required.

He will also take great pleasure in showing these electric appliances and fully explaining their workings to all who may care to understand them.

Hours of consultation from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m. da2 4t
