

Departure of Missionaries,

A large number of missionaries who were appointed at the General Conference, arrived at the depot, this morning, en route for their various fields of labor. Some are going to the United States, some to England, some to Scandinavia, and other countries. Among those who left here, this morning, were the following: Joseph A. West, William H. Wright, John Crawford, E. H. Nye, G. R. Belnap, H. W. Manning, Isaac Green, John G. Reeder, Edwin Spencer, Thomas W. Horsley, John A. Sutton, Lars Swensen, E. T. Budd, W. G. Paul, W. G. Reece, David Burdette, Christian Poulsen, B. P. Wulffenstein, David Lewis, John Pennman, John G. Hafen, John S. Hunter, Neils Rasmussen. The Elders appeared to be cheerful and happy. They left with the kind feelings and good wishes of a host of friends who went to the depot to bid them good-bye and God speed.
