

GENERAL DIRECTORY

Weber County comprises all that portion of the Territory bounded south by Davis County and the dividing ridge between North Ogden and Weber Valley, west by the eastern shore of Great Salt Lake, north by a line drawn due east from a point on said shore to the Hot Springs by the Territorial road north of Ogden City, thence by the summit of the spur range terminating at said Hot Springs, to its intersection with the summit of the Wasatch Mountains, east by the summit of said mountains.

The government of the County is vested in the County Court, composed of the Probate Judge, who is ex officio the presiding officer, and three selectmen, who hold office for three years, one being chosen every year. Regular terms begin on the first Monday in each season of the year.

The judiciary power is vested in the Probate Court, presided over by the Probate Judge, who is elected biennially, and holds his office for two years. The court is always open. The County Clerk is ex-officio Clerk of the Probate Court, and is elected biennially.

Elections are held annually, on the first Monday in August.

Present population of the County, about 18,000.
