The funeral services of John Charles Dalton, who on Friday last was crushed beneath the wheels of a wagon, took place shortly after five o'clock on Sunday evening, August 5, at the residence of the parents of the deceased. The services were conducted by Bishop N. C. Flygare and his counsel. A large number of people were present on the occasion.

After singing by the choir, prayer was offered up by Elder Winthrop Farley.

Elder Joseph Hall then delivered an address appropriate to the solemn occasion which had brought the people together. Bishop Flygare followed with a few seasonable remarks. The speakers expressed their deep sympathy for the afflicted parents in their bereavement, this being the fourth child they have lost by the hand of death—three within a few months past.

The benediction was pronounced by Bishop Gilbert Belnap.

The leave-taking by the parents at the close of the services, was deeply affecting, and the audience were profoundly moved by witnessing the griefstricken mother as she gazed upon the face of her beloved boy, for the last time in this life.

Mr. and Mrs. Dalton have the sincere sympathy of the community in their sad affliction.

The remains were followed to their last resting place by a large cortege.

Deceased was born June 6, 1867, and not in 1866, as first reported.
