

Buried in a Snowslide.

Mr. Oliver Belnap, of Hooper City, came in, this morning, from his home. He reports to us he learned at his burg that a young man from Mountain Green, by the name of Morgan Robinson, about 19 years of age, was buried in a snowslide in Strawberry Canyon, Weber Valley, yesterday or the day before. Some of the young man's relatives in Hooper were informed of the fact, several going out to rescue their friend. It was not known whether Robinson had been killed by his accident or not, although his chances are considered as very slim.
