

COUNTY CONVENTION

Of the People's Party of Weber
Nominating Candidates.

The Weber County Convention of the People's Party was held at the Courthouse, at 10 a. m., July 26th, 1884. On motion of C. F. Middleton, Hon. Jos. Stanford was chosen temporary chairman and Chas. Wright secretary. On motion, a committee on credentials was appointed by the chairman, to-wit: C. F. Middleton, R. G. Berrett, and Geo. W. Bramwell, Jr.

During the absence of the committee, Hon. F. A. Hammond favored the delegates with a pithy political speech, reviewing the organization of the principal parties of the United States and in a lucid manner explaining the principal planks of the opposing parties.

T. D. Dee, Esq., responded to a call and in a fine speech showed the necessity of unanimity in speech and action, and clearly explained that "eternal vigilance is the price of liberty."

He was followed by the Hon. Chairman who, in a short speech and elegant language, referred to the inimical legislation of the past Congress and to its failure up to the present time of bringing about the desired results.

The committee on credentials made the following report, which was accepted:

N. C. Flygare of First Ward, Ogden.
C. F. Middleton of Second Ward, Ogden.

B. E. Rich of Third Ward.
Thos. D. Dee of Fourth Ward.
