

Hotel de Belnap.

EDITOR HERALD:—Please permit me, through your columns, to correct an article in Monday night's issue, entitled "Jumped Jail." It is there stated that "Bill Bean and Phil Shuman, who, it will be remembered, have been partaking of the hospitable treatment extended to the guests at the Hotel de Fife made a break for liberty and were successful." The correction I wish to make is, that the "jail-birds" were not the "guests of the Hotel de Fife," and have not been "partaking of his hospitable treatment," but were subjects of the "Hotel de Belnap," and were entirely in his care and custody, on the ground floor of the jail, where none but County prisoners were kept.

WM. W. FIFE,
City Marshal.

OGDEN, Jan. 29, 1885.
