

Sheriff Belnap Returned.

Last evening Sheriff Belnap returned from his search after the two boys who ran away with Mr. Tadlock's team and wagon. He had hunted high and low but had so far failed to find them. He sent word ahead and has so well guarded every point that if they are not already out of the confines of the line drawn around them it will be difficult for them to escape.
