

JOSEPH BELNAP.

Can any voter think of a man who possesses the characteristics necessary for an efficient county assessor to a greater degree than honest JOE BELNAP?

THE Tribune man has caught sight of the Democratic corruption fund and warns his Liberal friends not to permit themselves to be seduced by glittering gold. The Republican managers have not been saying very much about the contemplated corruption of the votes of Democrats and Liberals, but all the same their little schemes for debauching the ballot are well understood and will be nipped if any attempt be made to carry them into execution.
