MORE REPUBLICAN CLUBS MEET.

The First and Fifth Warders Take

Their Inning.

Two more enthusiastic Republican club meeetings were held last night, one in the First and the other in the Filth. Both were largely attended and at each a number of interesting speeches were made by prominent Republicans. Tonight at 8 o'clock the Third ward Republicans will hold a rousing meeting at Southwell's hall for the purpose of reorganization. Several interesting speakers will be present, among them being Mesers. Bagley, Shilling and others.

AT THE FIRST WARD.

The Republicans of the First ward met in the school house at the corner of Grant and Twenty-sixth street, being called to order by W. F. Critchlow, president of the old club, who, on account of sickness in his family, asked that his resignation be accepted. W. N. Shilling was elected in his place and James Brown was chosen secretary.

An executive committee of five was appointed to make a thorough canvass of the ward. Speeches were made by R. H. Whipple, W. A. Lee, Mayor Lundy, W. F. Critchlow, J. E. Coolidge and others. Adjourned to meet at the mass meeting in the City hall on Friday night.

Pursuant to call the Fifth Ward Republican club met in Ensign hall last evening at 80 clock and was called to order by President R. H. G. Minty. The secretary, E. A. Littlefield, read the constitution of the club, after which an opportunity was given the Republicans present, who had not done so, an opportunity to sign the roll; eighteen new names were added.

FIFTH WARD CLUB MEETING.

The next business in order being the names were added.

The next business in order being the election of new officers, the following were nominated and elected: J. E. Bagley, president; F. S. Schoonover, first vice president: J. D. Gill, second vice president; W. E. Butcher, secretary; Joseph Belnap, treasurer; F. B.

C. J. Adams and J. E. Davenport, executive committee.

On motion, the president appointed a committee of seven on membership, as follows: W. T. Beardsley, B. A. Bowman, W. G. Childs, C. J. Corey, J. W.

Hurlbut, J. B. Stoddard, C. C. Brown, man, W. G. Childs, C. J. Corey, J. W. Browning, E. B. Leavitt, Joseph Belnap.

Messrs. Allison and Patterson addressed the club, which relies and and arterson.

dressed the club, which adjourned subject to the call of the chairman.