WINNING NOMINEES

in Four Wards. EIGHT MEN FOR THE COUNCIL.

Republican Primaries

LIBERALS OUT THE FIELD. OF They Decided not to Enter the Race-

Wise Selections Made for City Law Makers.

City Convention. The Republican primaries were held last night in four wards of the city.

These primaries were all largely attended and great enthusiasm prevailed.

The primaries did good work and nom-

Delegates Named to the Republican inated candidates for the city council who are men of business reputation, prudence and good judgment, who will take good care of the city's interests during the next two years. The delegates selected to the city convention are men who will select the city ticket with great care, having solely in view the pest interests of the city. They can be trusted to do their work well.

First Ward.

Julius Kiesel.

Councilman—Edwin Kerwin and

The First ward Republicans met at the city hall the room being filled to overflowing. Mr. I. H. T. Snyder was elected chairman and James Brown secretary. After a few rousing speeches had been made the nominations for councilmen came before the convention. Several names were placed in nomination, the result of the balloting being the selection of Edwin Kerwin and Julius Kiesel. The announcement of the result was received with great applause. The delegates to the city convention are as follows: W. Critchlow, Sam Jenkins, R. Payne, Ashby Stringham, Barney Mc-Cabe, George Murphy, A. C. McKinney, J. B. Twiford, H. T. Snyder, S. W. Knapp, Felix Rheinbold, Wallace Foul-ger, James Cassin, W. A. Scudder, Wm. Moyes, Job Pingree, James L. Thompson, L. G. Wilkerson, T. R. O'Connolly, O. S. Rapp, James Brown, Joa Wallace, Dan Cartwright, W. N. Schilling, W. W. Crossman and W. W. Funge—26: Second Ward, Councilmen-L. B. Adams and H. H. Thomas. A large number of Republican voters

gathered in Thomas' hall last evening to nominate candidates for the city council from the Second Ward and to choose delegates to the city convention.

The proceedings were marked by calm deliberation until the work had been completed, when enthusiasm broke loose and the result of the primary was

A. R. Heywood was chosen chairman and T. Y. Stratford secretary. Several names were proposed as candidates for the council, but the vote resulted in the choice of L. B. Adams and H. II.

ratified by resounding cheers.

The delegates to the city convention are as follows: L. B. Adams, Joseph Stanford, C. D. Hayes, A. J. Anderson,

H. H. Thomas, J. F. Rowland, W. J. Jenkins, George Barr, J. V. Nelson,

George Watts, C. L. Peebles, A. F. Ritchie, J. E. Williams, Richard Hill, J. E. Coolidge, D. W. Ellis, Frank B. Wadman, James G. Moyes, John Ballinger, A. C. Walker, James E. McFar-land, B. F. Shepard, H. W. Shurtliff, J. R. Monohan, M. H. Thomas, George Draper, Wm. D. VanDyke, A. R. Hey-Alternates-Fred Green, CF Beeson. Robert Baird, C E Hogue, Phillip

Rank, Edward Luis TY Stanford, O A

Third Ward.

Councilmen-A I [Stone and William

The Third war Republicans nominated their ticket a week ago Saturday evening. The delegates to the city convention are: BF Garr, WR Brown, LD Wilson, John Farr, WC Clark, CW Westover, A Bowman, CA Barrows, JF Pierce, HL Bowen, HB Westover,

Otto E Lund, E R Christofferson, J W Lamborn, MJ Stone, BM Robinson, E

Potter, E O Phillips, L H Abbott, W L Wattis, J H Shaw, John Chipp, Sr, D

Munson, Neil Anderson, P J Thorsted

T Dobson, Lee Curtis, B G Shuck, J

Nelson, Morton White, CC West.

Alternates — Stephen Bowen, T W Stewart, T Bailey W W Boutright, Robert Wotherspoon, Wm Sharp and

A J Wotherspoon.

--28.

Farrell.

The Fourth ward primary was the most fargely attended of any of the primaries, there being about 250 persons present. Judge J. S. Boreman was made chairman of the meeting and A. C. Emerson Charles Meigham and John Smuin secretaries. The balloting for council candidates resulted in the choice

The delegates to the city convention

are: A O Emerson, A J Elliott, I L

Clark, N O Flygare, J Baxter, W A Lee, R P Hunter, A S Condon, R H Whipple, H A Walker, C P Jennings, R O Lundy, Fourth Ward.

Councilmen-I L Clark and William

E H Anderson, E M Allison, Jr. A T Wright, J G Burt, J S Boreman, E T Woolley, M A Breeden, O M Brough, J G Stratford, O R Leonard, C R Hank, M V Gilbert, I M Douglass, E A Olsen, of I L Clark and Wm Farrell.

G G Griffith, H O Wardleigh, George C Burt, J T Ballantyne, S J Allen, John Burt, J T Ballantyne, S J Allen, John Smuin, L R Rogers, William Farrell, L J Wykes, S L Ives, Charles Meighan, T W Chambers, J M D Taylor, W C Turner, A J Warner, C A Eklund, F J Hendershot, W R White, M Buckmiller, V O Gunnell, J G Thomas, D Kay, A J Jost, J D Fife—50.

Alternates—William Schaunsenbach,

CONTINUED ON LAST PAGE.

CONTINUED FROM FIRST PAGE.

H E Steele, R Jones, Rudolph Cramer, Mark Fletcher, J G Paine, J H Spargo, D Thorburn, William Drysdale, J P Stone.

Councilmen-Adam Patterson and W F Adams. At the Fifth ward J E Bagley was named as chairman and W T Beardsley

Fifth Ward.

secretary. The meeting was large and enthusia stic and the work of selecting candidates for the council was quickly done, the selection of delegates requiring considerable time. Several candidates were named for the council but the successful ones are Adam Patterson and W F Adams. The delegates selected are as follows:

J W Browning, E A Littlefield, J B Stoddard, S H Geisey, B A Bowman, C K Bannister, J N Kimball, Joseph Belnap, W F Adams, N M Graves, F B Hurlbut, F S Schoonover, B A

Hurlbut, F S Schoonover, B A McMillan, J D Gill, Lorenzo Farr, E B Leavitt, J E Bagley, W W Corey, R H G Minty, W T Beardsley, C O Brown, J E Davenport, Thos Cohoon, Adam Patterson, J S Houtz, J C Nye, C E Layne, Henry Last, C C Robinson, E O Wattis, A B Corey, W G Child—32. Alternates—L W Tackett, G E Morrison, W J Stephenson, J M Armstrong, H Berry, A H Swan, O G Randall, A W Child, J J Reeve and R S Page.

Out of the Race. The liberal party has decided not to place a ticket in the field for the coming election. Nearly three weeks ago the liberals of Ogden were surprised by the withdrawal from the party of Hon. Fred J. Kiesel and Ad. Kuhn, two of the old wheel horses of the party. Within a day or two afterward a number of prominent liberals gathered to consult with the liberal central committee regarding the advisability of putting up a ticket in this campaign. There was a division of sentiment and twenty-three of the leading liberals met after the conference with the liberal committee, and signed an address to liberal voters, expressing the opinion that the time had come to drop the liberal party operations. This address was signed the next day by about 150 of the leading liberal voters. Since then voters have been steadily leaving the ranks. The first break in the organized central committee was when J. D. Gill resigned as chairman of the committee. T. B. Wilde was elected to succeed Mr. Gill, and then Wilde resigned. His place was filled by the election of A. J. Warner who in turn resigned and J. H. Restall was elected chairman. During the past two weeks the personnel of the committee has changed almost completely two or three times. A general spirit of unrest and dissatisfaction seemed to prevail for three separate meetings were called to discuss the question uppermost in the minds liberal voters. The last meeting called was the one of yesterday, which decided to not nominate a ticket. The call for yesterday's mass meeting was made by Chairman Restall of the central committee. When the audience assembled there were fifty or sixty voters present and the matter was discussed thoroughly once more. When the time came to vote upon the question there were twenty-two ballots cast. Twelee of these were against putting up a ticket and ten in favor. The majority having decided, the chair announced that it was the expressed wish of the party that it should not enter the campaign as a party. A resolution was conceded to the minority which declared that liberal voters should use their best endeavors to defeat the election to office of any candidate who had deserted the liberal party while holding office under liberal rule.

As soon as the result was reached the banner in front of liberal headquarters was token down, the rooms deserted and last night all was dark. Most of the liberals who held out to the last mingled in the Republican conventions last night and got into working harness without any loss of time.