

STEPHENS VS. BELNAP.

Relict of the Consolidated Milling Company in Court.

Half a Dozen Civil and a Similar Number of Criminal Cases—No New Cases Filed—Other Courts.

In the Fourth district court yesterday the attention of Judge Miner was largely occupied by the case of Stephens vs. Belnap, arising from the failure of that relict of olden days, the Consolidated Milling and Mining Co. The case was brought against Sheriff Belnap, as the salesman in the case of numerous attachments under which he sold a part of the property of the defunct concern. The attorneys for the firms in whose favor the attachments were issued are defending the case for Mr. Belnap.
