Enthusiastic Meeting of Republicans Held Last Evening.

Pursuant to the call for a Republican primary at the Fifth ward institute, a good-sized audience had gathered at 8 o'clock. On motion of Mr. W. T. Beardsley Mr. W. F. Adams was elected chairman. Upon the invitation of Chairman Adams Mr. Glasmann explained the plans of the central committee in regard to effectively organizing the precincts. Judge Bagley moved that a committee of three be appointed by the chair to consult with the Republicans present with a view to recommending means for the precinct organization. Carried. Pending the appointment of the committee Hon. Joseph Stanford, upon invitation, addressed the meeting, dwelling upon the necessity of thorough and active work, and caustically referring to the crafty program of the Democrats in attempting to hoodwink the Republicans by inducing them to join in the so-called non-partisan celebration of Utah day at Saltair. He urged vigilance and untiring work on the part of every member of the party.

The chairman named the committee as follows; T. F. Hurlbut, W. T. Beardsley, Joseph Belnap. Judge Bagley, by request, delivered an interesting and eloquent address on the momentous questions now before the people of the nation.

J. N. Kimball, L. R. Rogers and F. J. Hendershot made short and pithy remarks.

W. T. Beardsley, of the committee of consultation appointed by the chair, reported the names of the precinct committeemen selected by them as follows; J. J. D. Gill, Adam Patteron, W. J. Child, Dan Pugh, F. B. Hurlbut, L. A. Child, Joe Belnap, W. D. Salter and L. J. Holther.
