

RANDOM REFERENCES

The Ogden Poultry and Pet Stock association are preparing their annual poultry show to take place some time during the third week of January.

Mrs. Jennie Nelson has been visiting friends in Salt Lake.

Joseph II. West of Salt Lake is in the city today.

An application for the parole of Jesse Malone from the penitentiary has been made to the board of pardons.

The hack-men of Ogden city have formed a combination and hereafter will charge 50 cents per mile for any trips after 12 o'clock at night. *

The Friday night club assembles at Dignan's next Friday evening, December 12, '02.

James Rae, a prominent stockman of Salt Lake city, stopped over in Ogden this morning en route home from Chicago where he went to attend the National stock show. He states that it was the greatest show in the history of livestock exhibitions in this country.

The railway mail clerks residing in Ogden are preparing an elaborate banquet in honor of Superintendent A. P. Thrall, of the Eighth district, who is expected to pass through Ogden from Washington, D. C., where he has been in business connected with his department and division.

(Continued on Page 2)

RANDOM REFERENCES

(Continued from page 5.)

C. G. Billings, of Salt Lake is an Organized visitor this afternoon.

J. H. Williams and wife are visiting in the city from Denver.

F. J. McDonough of Lincoln, Neb., is visiting in the city. He was formerly state senator in that state.

A young man named Trunkbill was arrested at noon today on a charge of disturbing the peace. He was arrested a week ago but got away from the officers. He will now have to face two charges.

Marriage licenses were issued to the following parties today: James A. Bailey, aged 23, and Ellen L. Shaw, aged 21, both of North Ogden; Wm. J. Wilkinson, aged 29, and Isabelle Carroll, aged 23, both of Salt Lake City; Oscar Geertson, aged 23, of Huntsville, and Ina Belle Buckingham, aged 19, of Columbus Grove, Ohio.

J. W. Flynn, the traveling salesman, was an Ogden visitor today. About a year ago he had an unfortunate experience, when he and the conductor on one of the Southern Pacific passenger trains had trouble over his ticket and he was ejected from the train. Mr. Flynn went to San Francisco, where he secured a judgment against the company for damages and the amount of the ticket.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Belnap announce the wedding of their daughter Tirzah to Aaron C. Ross which will take place during the coming week.

Real estate transfers amounted to $7,003.

Sheriff Layne took George West to the insane asylum today. He was examined by Drs. Joyce and Coulter, late yesterday afternoon.