The name adopted for the stake was the "Ogden Stake of Zion." Next Sunday the northwest stake of the recent division will be given a name and the officers of the organization elected. On the following Sunday the Weber stake will be reorganized and the new officers elected. It is expected that the present presidency of the stake will be chosen to preside over the stake. But there is considerable conjecture as to what name will be given the northwest stake and who its officers will be. The names discussed for the new stake are Farr-West, West Weber and Marriott.
