It will be to your advantage to give conscientious attention to the affairs of others, left in your care, through accident or design. You are cautioned against too much self confidence in starting disagreements or innovations. Their results will be against you finally.

Those born today will be venture some and unresourceful. Often they will be successful by luck rather than management. Their failures will come from too great confidence in their own opinions which will be formed from considering one side only.

MAN 100 SAYS HE WILL LIVE TO 200

Samuel Green, Who Married a Woman of 46, Declares He Has a Wyoming Friend 87 Years Old Who Was a Small Boy When He Was a Young Man—Wife Vouches For the Good Qualities of Her Husband—Old Fellow Needs No Nursing.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Green of Pocatello, who were married at the county clerk's office Wednesday evening, are still in the city and they expect to remain here a week or ten days while Mr. Green purchases horses for shipment to Idaho.

Mr. Green, who gave his age as 100, stated this morning that he could see no reason for doubt as to his age or why his affidavit regarding his age should be questioned whatever. He stated that he is known over the entire western country from Rawlins, Wyo., to San Francisco, and that his friends all know him to be a centenarian. Speaking of the matter he said:

"Yes, I am 100 years old and I can see no reason why I should not live another hundred years. I have had no sickness and feel as well today as ever. I have a friend living in Wyoming, 87 years old, who knew me when he was a boy, and I was a young man."

"The clerks asked me a good many questions when we got our license and I told them, jokingly, that I was marrying a nurse to take care of me."

At this juncture the wife interjected, "A nurse, yes, that is what he said, but he needs no nurse, I can tell you. I am a nurse, just the same, but his age is not bothering him any and we are not ashamed of it. Neither am I ashamed of mine. I was born in Germany in 1867."

Mr. Green is a retired livery stable man of Pocatello but now owns and conducts, in connection with his son, what is known as the Smith Transfer business. He is well-to-do and is still active in business. He states that he has followed stockraising and mining most of his life, living in the open air and always taking good care of himself. He does not indulge to any great extent in alcoholic drinks nor in the use of narcotics. His habit is only to drink with gray, but he states that were he to let his beard grow it likely would be white.

While explaining about his beard Mrs. Green interposed with sharp wit: "Well, you are not going to let your beard grow, I assure you."

Mr. Green said that he gave his age at the clerk's office 25 years ago when he secured a marriage license as 42 at the request of his bride who was only 28. He said that she did not want him to give his age as 75 and he complied with her wishes.

ARE ENTITLED TO RESPECT

Detroit, May 23.—"The man who, by word or deed, creates bad feeling between the United States and Japan is an enemy of civilization," declared James H. Franklin of Boston, foreign secretary of the American Baptist Foreign Mission society, in an address today before the Northern Baptist convention now in session here. Secretary Franklin, discussing a recent tour he made in Japan, said:

"The Japanese people want no trouble with the United States unless the trouble is forced on them in defense of what they consider their national honor."

"The Japanese newspaper men are absolutely fair," said Mr. Franklin, "in their reports of news of a religious or moral nature. Their libraries are stocked with the best books in the world."

"With all the earnestness which I can command, I say that the Japanese are entitled to the respect and confidence of the world. We condemn in the Japanese the very traits on which Americans and Englishmen pride themselves—shrewdness and independence. In fact, the Japanese are known everywhere as the 'Yankees' of the west."
