WAYNE NEILSON SURPRISED.
Master Wayne Neilson was surprised when a happy party of his little friends met at his home, 2055 Farr avenue, last Tuesday.

The little guests arrived about 3 o'clock and spent a delightful afternoon, playing games and enjoying delicious refreshments, and later a peanut scramble on the lawn. Those who enjoyed the afternoon were: Vanda Dorey, Gwendolyn Johnson, Gladys Burxon, Le Rue Rogers, Helen Neilson, Gladys Dorey, Vivian Burton, Wayne Neilson, Bud Burton, Ruland Dorey, Clyde Neilson, Leonard Staker, Charles Olsen and Clyde Saunders.

MRS. G. L. BECKER ENTERTAINS AT GUSTHELKA.
Seventy guests were delightfully entertained by Mrs. Gus L. Becker last Wednesday afternoon at her summer home Gusthelka, in Ogden canyon. The affair was beautifully appointed and given in compliment to Mrs. Becker's house guest, Miss Lillian Amaloe Smith of Los Angeles, California. From three until five o'clock Mrs. Becker, assisted by Mrs. Conrad Robb and Mrs. C. R. Hollingsworth, received the guests.

During the afternoon delicious refreshments were served by special caterers. Tables were arranged on the veranda and in the dining room, where a perfectly prepared luncheon was served, while in the patio delicious fruit punch was served. The punch bowl was constructed of ice frozen in the form of a large bowl, in which were iced grapes, grape leaves surrounded. The lovely summer home of the Beckers was very prettily decorated for the occasion with asters and American Beauty roses. In the patio and living room the roses prevailed, while the asters were artistically arranged on the veranda.

A delightful feature of the afternoon's entertainment and one which afforded the guests unusual enjoyment was the beautiful rendition of a number of piano selections by Miss Smith, the honor guest. Miss Smith is a pianist of extraordinary achievement. She gave the following: "The Brook".....Leschitzky "The Rondo Capriccioso".....Mendelssohn "Rigolotto" Paraphrase.....List "Lucia Sextette" (arranged for left hand alone).....Leschitzky "Land Alone".....Leschitzky In addition to the selections given by Miss Smith, the well-known Lillian Thatcher orchestra gave a program of delightful musical numbers during the afternoon. They were stationed on a balcony.
