OGDEN YOUNG MAN GETS M. D. DEGREE

At the commencement exercises war he enlisted in the navy and was nesized to the medical dist-sion at San Diego, and was late-transferred to the manal station at nap of Ogdon, began the study of medicine at the University of Utah in 1916. At the outbreak of the Norfolk \a From this base he made several trips across the Atmany several trips across the At-America' crippled and wounded

In the fall of 1919 he was released from the navy, and again re-sume I his studies at the University of Utah completing this course in June of 1921 In September of the same year he entered the University of Illinois completing his course with high honors About the first of July he will enter the Grart hospital at Chicago, as in-tern. His school mates have honored him during the last year and a half by electing and retaining him as president of the Phi Chi

The experience gained while at the naval hospitals at San Diego and Norfolk, assisting with the work in bringing back the wounded, and the combat against the in-fluenza epidemic of 1918, has greativ assisted him during the remainder of his studies. While finishing his course at the University of I'tah he was employed at the St Mark's hospital, where he received pract.cal experience which has fitwith his chosen line of

His mother, Anna C Relnap and his sisters, Jewel and Della left Ogden a week ago to attend the commencement exercises They will spend a few more days with him before returning home

Medical fraternity

soldiers

ted to esibuta

of the medical school of the University of Illinois at Chicago last Saturday, H. Earl Belunp was given his M D degree Mr Bel-nap, who is the son of Hyrum Bel-