

FUNERALS

Funeral services for W. Charles Schmalz will be held at the Second ward chapel tomorrow (Sunday) at 3 p. m. The body may be viewed at the home of Mrs William Moyes, 218 Twenty-sixth street, after 1 p. m. today and tomorrow until time of services. Interment will be in the City cemetery, under the direction of Lingquist undertakers.

Funeral services for Daniel C. Walker were held Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock in the Eden ward meeting house, conducted by Bishop's Counselor Robert Graham. The meeting house was filled with relatives and friends and there were many beautiful flowers. Members of the high priests' quorum of the ward acted as pallbearers. "Teach Me to Pray" and "Rock of Ages" were sung by Miss Myra Wright. "Sometime We'll Understand" and "What Voice Salutes," were sung by Halvy Bachman. A violin and piano duet was played by Leola and Josephine Manzel. Speakers were President John Halls, President Joseph Ririe, Louis L. Petrin, Virgil B. Stallings, Wilmer Ferrin, Raymond B Thompson, Adam L Peterson and Bishop George A Fuller Interment was in the Huntsville cemetery John Wilson dedicated the grave.

Funeral services for Charles Saunders Warner were held this morning at 10 o'clock in Lindquist's funeral chapel, with James Harbortson presiding President Joseph Ririe was the speaker. Nephew J Brown sang "Oh My Father"

Interment was in the City cemetery

Funeral services for Darrell Belnap, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Volney Belnap, were held yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock at the residence of the grandmother, Mrs Hiram Belnap, 904 Twenty-first street. Bishop J. H Jenkins presided and spoke Walter Stephens sang "A Little Pink Rose" and Ethel Martin sang "Your Sweet Little Rose Bud Has Left You"

Interment was in the City cemetery. Bishop Belnap dedicated the grave.