

FUNERALS

Bishop J. Howard Jenkins conducted the funeral services for John Joseph Furniss, held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the Thirteenth ward meeting house. Twenty-two platform men attended in a body and led the funeral cortege, marching from the home to the church and from the church to the cemetery. The services were largely attended, and there was a wealth of floral offerings. The Thirteenth ward male quartet sang "The Teacher's Work Is Done." The quartet of the Thirteenth ward Relief society sang "Beyond Tomorrow." Mrs. H. R. Pulsifer sang "My Faith Is True." William Woodyatt sang "I Know My Redeemer Lives." Mrs. Ethel Haggis sang "I Have Read of a Beautiful City," assisted in the chorus by the ward choir. Speakers were Clarence P. Larson, Patriarch Levi J. Taylor, Albert Green, Bishop J. Howard Jenkins. Interment was in the City cemetery, with Bishop Jenkins dedicating the grave. Members of the Relief society attended in a body and carried the flowers.

Funeral services for Virginia V. Briggs were held Sunday at 12 o'clock noon in the Harrisville meeting house. Counselor Horace Shurtliff conducted. A girls' chorus sang "Jesus Wants Me For a Sunbeam." Mrs. Lizzie Norsoth sang "My Father Knows." A duet, "Unanswered Yet," was sung by Lucy Stout and Myrtle Brown. A trio composed of Robert J. Eames, Myrtle Brown and Lucy Stout, sang "Sometime We'll Understand." Speakers were Anthony Russell, Patriarch Levi J. Taylor, Ruth Agreen, Bishop H. R. Brown, L. A. Larkin. Interment was in the City cemetery, with Levi J. Taylor dedicating the grave.

Funeral services for Mrs. Sarah Jane Belnap were held Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock in the fourth ward meeting house. Bishop H. E. Lund presided and Bishop's Counselor N. A. Gay conducted. Counselor Ed. Saunders offered the opening prayer and J. M. D. Taylor pronounced the benediction. The fourth ward male quartet sang "Savior Comfort Me" and "Abide With Me." William S. Wright sang "Twill Not Be Long" and Mrs. Bernice Tyree sang "Rock of Ages." Speakers were Mrs. Marion Johnson of the Relief society, Patriarch E. A. Olson, President Thomas E. McKay of the Ogden stake, Bishop Hyrum D. Lund, Counselor N. A. Gay. There was a large attendance and many floral offerings. The life and character of Mrs. Belnap were praised highly. Members of the High priest quorum acted as pallbearers and the fourth ward Relief society members and Daughters of the Pioneers acted as flower bearers. Interment was in the City cemetery, with Frank Belnap dedicating the grave.

June Irene Moyes, infant daughter of Byron and Irene Richardson Moyes, died at Magna, Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The baby was born in Magna, July 26, 1923. The body was taken in charge by Lindquist undertakers. Funeral services were held this afternoon at the residence of the grandfather, Bishop Myron B. Richardson, 2201 Grant avenue. Interment was in the City cemetery.

Funeral services for Daniel B. Roman were held Sunday at 2:30 o'clock in the Riverdale meeting house, with Bishop Murray K. Jacobs presiding. A double mixed quartet sang "Through Deepening Trials" and "I Know My Redeemer Lives." Mrs. Mary Farley sang "Oh My Father." Edward and Arthur Bingham sang "In the Hour of Trial." Speakers were Bishop A. A. Bingham, President Samuel G. Dye, President Nathan A. Tanner, C. J. A. Lindquist and Bishop Jacobs. Interment was in the City cemetery. Bishop A. A. Bingham dedicated the grave.

The funeral services of Mrs. Alice Flowers Loughran will be held at St. Joseph's Catholic church Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, with Monsignor P. M. Cushman officiating. The body will be taken from the Kirkendall mortuary to the family home, 2719 Lincoln avenue and may be viewed there Tuesday afternoon and evening. Interment will be in the Mountain View cemetery.

Funeral services for Joseph E. Moynahan, 34, will be held Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock at the St. Joseph's Catholic church with the Monsignor P. M. Cushman officiating. Interment will be in the Mountain View cemetery. Mr. Moynahan died Saturday morning, January 12, after an operation of appendicitis, at Pocatello, Idaho. He was born September 6, 1890, at Ogden, and had been a resident of Pocatello for a number of years. He was employed as clerk for the Ryan Fruit company. He was the son of Patrick and Martha Brennan Moynahan. Surviving are his mother, Mrs. M. Moran, and the following sisters: Mrs. J. P. O'Neill, Mrs. George Foley, both of Ogden, Mrs. J. B. Foley and Mrs. Melvin Wadley, both of Omaha, Neb., Mrs. David Pirth, and a brother, Charles J. Moynahan, both of Tracy, Cal. The body is at the home of his mother, 3055 Pacific avenue, where it may be viewed this evening and tomorrow up until time of services.