

FUNERALS

Funeral services for Fred Hammond Wilson, teamster, who died from injuries received while working in the Ogden railroad yards, were held Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock in the Kirkendall chapel under the direction of the Rev. W. E. Bennett, pastor of the Methodist church. Solos, "Nearer My God to Thee," "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere," and "Face to Face," were sung by Mrs. C. J. Bolstead. Interment was in the Ogden cemetery.

Following unsuccessful attempts to locate friends or relatives of A. S. Glimes who was killed by a train near the Ogden river bridge last week, brief services were held Monday afternoon at the Kirkendall chapel. Interment was in the Ogden city cemetery.

Funeral services for Mrs. May L. McDonald were held Tuesday at Hooper meeting house, conducted by Bishop Thomas Read. The ward choir sang "Beautiful Isle" followed by "I Need Thee Every Hour" and "Consolation." A solo, "Sometime We'll Understand" was sung by Charles Fowler. A quartet composed of Mrs. Dale Russell, Mrs. Clarence Johnson, Mrs. Vern Parker and Mrs. Vern Fowler, sang "His Loving Kindness." Joseph Moore sang "The Plains of Peace." Speakers were Francis Nalder, S. M. Belnap, John D. Hooper and Bishop George R. Bennett. Interment was in the Hooper cemetery. The grave was dedicated by A. C. Patterson. A large number attended the services.
