MRS. JULIA JAMES DIES

Mrs. Julia Whitehead James, widow ed William F. James, died this morning at 9 o'clock at the home of her daughter. Mrs. Lit-lian Hancock, 170 Twenty-first street, after a long liness. Mrs. James was born Feb. 18, 1860, in Somersetsbire, England, the daughter of George and Julia Mor-ris Whitehead. IEARLY ASSISTANCE. At the age of eight years sho went to Liverpool and took charge of the younger children, while her mother worked in the mission of-fice. In 1868 the family came to America and joined the father, who had previously worked his pass-age across the ocean. When the family was reunited they coolinued on their way to Utah and crossed the plains with Homer Duncan's company, arriving in Morgan, where the father worked for the railroad. From there they moved to Promontory and in 1858 come to Ogden, and Mr. Whitehead start-da who shop in the place where the Orpheum theatro now stands. Mrs. James became a member of the first Y. L. M.'I. associa-tion, organized in 1876. Sho was married to Mr. James in the St. George temple in September, 1877. Atter her marriage Mrs. James ac-companied her husband on a mis-sion to Arizona and Mexico and they traveled 1,000 miles by team, arriving in St. John, Ariz, in 1879, where there were no while people. after suffering many hardships on the way. For cight years they abored among the Indians and then moved to Mexico, laboring for two years more before returning to Ogden. They lived in Wilson Lame for 20 years and lately Mirs. James has been a resident of the Orden. They lived in Wilson Lame for 20 years and lately Mirs. James has been a resident of the Orden. They lived in Wilson Lame for 20 years and lately Mirs. James has been a resident of the Orden. They lived in Wilson Lame for 20 years and lately Mirs. James has been a resident of the Orden. They lived in Wilson Lame for 20 years and lately Mirs. James has been a resident of the Orden. They lived in Wilson Lame for 20 years and lately Mirs. James has been a resident of the Orden. They lived in Wilson Lames of the

Mrs. James was the mother of 15 children, 10 of whom survive. They are William H. James, Hy-jum; Mrs. Rose Belnap, George M. James, Mrs. John Brown, Mrs. Lillian Hancock, Mrs. Leland Newey and Alfred James of Ogden; Mrs. George Sorenson of Pocatello; Mrs. Pearl Jessup of Logan and Miss Laura James of Sait Lake; 35 grandchildren, two brothers, Frank Whitehead of Ogden and Charles Whitehead of Ogden and Charles Whitehead of El Paso, Texas, and one sister, Mrs. D. R. Zitzman of California, also survive. Funeral arrangements are in charge of Larkin and Sons and will be announced later. James, Mrs. John Brown, Mrs. Lillian Hancock, Mrs. Leland