

FUNERALS

Funeral services for Gwen Ellen Tippetts, two-year-old daughter of Dee and Ida Belnap Tippetts, who died Friday, will be held Sunday at 3 o'clock at the home of the aunt, Mrs. Aaron Ross, 3432 Washington avenue, with Bishop James Harbertson presiding. Interment will be made in the City cemetery under the direction of Larkin and Sons.

Funeral services for Mrs. Annie Fowers Byington were held Friday afternoon in the Hooper meeting house with Bishop John Hooper presiding. The ward choir sang, "Sister, Thou wast Mild and Lovely." Ed Saunders sang "O, My Father." "Dear Mother, of Mine" was sung by Mrs. Artie Blakeley and Joseph O. Moore sang "I'll Go Where You Want Me to Go." A trio of girls composed of Frances Russell, Fern Fowers and Reta Parker, sang "Home and Mother." The speakers were Bishop J. R. Beus, L. M. Belnap, Irvine Childs, John H. Nalsett, Samuel Hadley and Bishop John Hooper. Nephews of Mrs. Byington acted as pallbearers and nieces had charge of the flowers. Interment was made in the Hooper cemetery under the direction of Lindquists and Joseph A. Fowers dedicated the grave.

Funeral services for Leslie Saunders were held Friday at 2 o'clock in the Harrisville meeting house, with Bishop Roy Brown presiding. The Eames family trio sang "We Shall Meet Beyond the River." A girls' chorus sang "Jesus Wants Me For a Sunbeam." William S. Wright sang "Our Fleeting Hour" and "In That Beautiful Land." Ed Saunders sang "O, My Father." The speakers were, President Thomas Irvine; Harvey Taylor, President Joseph Hille and Bishop Brown. Deacons acted as pallbearers and the Sunday school class took charge of the flowers. Interment was made in the City cemetery and C. A. Lindquist dedicated the grave.