

FUNERALS

Services for Mrs. John J. Shaughnessy will be held on Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the First Presbyterian church with the Rev. John Edward Carver officiating. The body may be viewed at the home, 315 PARRY avenue, on Monday and also on Tuesday until time of services. Internment will be made in the Mountain View cemetery under the direction of the Kirkendall mortuary.

Services for Evan Evans were held on Sunday at 3 o'clock in the Huntsville meeting house with Bishop William R. McEntire presiding and Counselor Irving Tracy conducting. Clara Peterson and Ella Perrin sang "One Sweetly Solemn Thought" and "I Know Not How Soon It Will Be." Marlin Braithwaite gave a violin solo and Mrs. A. Aldous sang "O My Father." Opening prayer was given by Nels Lofgren and benediction by Joseph Peterson. Speakers were Apostle David O. McKay, Hyrum Belnap, C. J. A.

Lindquist and Bishop McEntire. Interment was made in the Huntsville cemetery and the grave dedicated by Thomas E. McKay.

Services for Edna Beverly Wilson, three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dunbar Wilson, were held on Sunday afternoon at the Lindquist chapel with Counselor A. Glen Wright presiding. Violet Banford sang "Abide With Me" and "A Little Pink Rose." Mrs. Mathel Allen Ridges sang "That Sweet Story of Old" and "All Through the Night." Opening prayer was given by P. W. Jackson and benediction by Owen Ridges. Speakers were H. A. Shupe, Enoch Bingham and Counselor Wright. Interment was made in the City cemetery. Counselor Wright dedicated the grave.

Services for Henry Lloyd will be held on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Lindquist chapel with Bishop James M. Harbertson presiding. The body may be viewed at the chapel this afternoon and also tomorrow until time of services. Surviving Mr. Lloyd are the following sons and daughters: Mrs. May Bagley of Salt Lake; William E. Lloyd, Jackson, Wyo.; Henry G. Lloyd, Billings, Mont.; Mrs. Mary Hansen, Council Bluffs, Ia.; Mrs. Christine Milan, Omaha, and a stepdaughter, Mrs. Margaret Unander, Ogden. Twenty-four grandchildren also survive.

The body of Thomas A. Smuin, who died in Barstow, Cal., on July 12, arrived in Ogden this morning from Rexberg, Idaho, where services were held Saturday, and was taken to the Lindquist chapel. At 11 o'clock the body, accompanied by relatives, was taken to the City cemetery where President Joseph H. McFarland spoke and also dedicated the grave.

The body of Glen Douglas England, eight-months-old son of Rollow and Laura Maycock England, arrived this morning from Los Angeles, where he died on July 16 after a three days' illness. He was born in Los Angeles on Oct. 3, 1925, and is survived by the parents, one brother, Junior, and the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William England of Plain City and Mrs. James Maycock of Los Angeles. Funeral services will be held on Tuesday at 2:30 o'clock in the residence of the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. England, in Plain City, under the direction of Bishop George A. Palmer. Friends may view the body today and this evening at the Lindquist chapel and also tomorrow until time of services at the home of the grandparents in Plain City. Interment will be made in the City cemetery. Flowers may be left at Lindquist's until noon Tuesday.