

Funerals

Funeral services for Jonas T. Illum were held Sunday at 2 o'clock in the Plain City meeting house, with Bishop George Palmer presiding, and Counselor Thos. Jenkins, assisting. Bernice Carver and Mary Knight sang "Beyond Today." Fred Kenly and Mrs. Nellie Draney sang "Gates of Gold." Mrs. Draney and Miss Carver sang "Jesus, Lover of My Soul" and Miss Knight and Miss Carver sang "Come, Holy Spirit." The opening prayer was given by P. N. Folkman and the benediction by A. Jenkins. The speakers were Charles Weatherston, Bishop Wilmer Maw, Patriarch Peter Illum and Bishop Palmer.

---

Funeral services for Stephen H. Naider were held Sunday at 4:30 o'clock in the Kaysville tabernacle with Bishop James E. Ellison presiding. The choir sang "I Know My Redeemer Lives" and "Shall We Meet Beyond the River?" The opening prayer was given by John W. Thornley, and the benediction by President E. P. Ellison. Joseph Call of Salt Lake sang "O, My Father," and "Resignation." A cello selection was given by Mrs. Thornley and Miss Thornley, and Robert Birken sang "My Faith in Thee." The pallbearers were high priests and the grave in the Kaysville cemetery was dedicated by William H. Blood.

---

Funeral services for Keith Albert Arave, infant son of Albert and Emma Cottle Arave were held Sunday afternoon in the Hooper meeting house, with Bishop John D. Hooper officiating. The speakers were J. Levi Beus, Francis M. Belnap and Bishop Hooper. Music was provided by the ward choir. There was a solo by George Manning and a duet with choir accompaniment by Charles Fowles and Ila Naisbitt. The opening prayer was given by Orson P. Cottle and the closing prayer by James G. Widdison, Jr. The grave was dedicated by George E. Fowler.

---

Funeral services for Samuel Perry Brooks, who died in San Francisco last Wednesday, were held Sunday in the Kirkendall chapel with Professor James A. Smith presiding. Mrs. Bernice Tyree sang. Interment was in the Mountain View cemetery where Professor Smith dedicated the grave.