

Funerals

Funeral services for Jane Ann Jones were held Friday afternoon from the Wilson meeting house under the direction of Bishop James H. Platt. Bishop George Heslop offered the opening prayer while George Slot pronounced the benediction. Music was furnished as follows: Male quartet, Charles Fowles, Leland Stoddard, Joseph O. Moore and George W. Manning, "Just Beyond" and "Through Deepening Trials"; Charles Fowles, "Beautiful Isle"; George Manning, "What Trials Are Those Which Are Arrayed?" The speakers were Bishop Robert McFarland, Frank Belnap, Bishop John D. Hooper, President Frank Stratford and Bishop Platt. Interment was in the Hooper cemetery, where Bishop E. A. Dingham dedicated the grave.

Funeral services for Jay T. Yamashita, 17-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Yamashita, Japanese farmer of Hooper, who was drowned in a small reservoir near Hooper Thursday, were held Saturday afternoon in the Hooper meeting house. Bishop John D. Hooper had charge of the services.

Joseph O. Moore and O. Lee Stoddard sang "Come Unto Me." Mrs. Pearl Parker sang, "T'will Not Be Long." Mr. Moore sang "The Land of Little Faces," and Mr. Stoddard sang "Your Sweet Little Rosebud."

A prayer was given by Edwin Parker. Speakers were Joseph H. Stimpson of Riverdale; C. Koga, G. Kato, M. Fujl and Bishop Hooper. A closing selection, "Unanswered Yet," was sung by Mrs. Dale Russell and Mrs. George W. McCoy. John H. Nalsbitt closed with a prayer.

Interment was in the Hooper cemetery, where Bishop Hooper dedicated the grave.

Funeral services for Margaret Mary Sweeney, 12-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Sweeney, will be held Monday morning at 10 o'clock at the St. Joseph's Catholic church with Monsignor P. M. Cushman reading mass. The body can be viewed today and Monday until time of services at the family residence, 2625 Harrison avenue. Interment will be in the Mountain View cemetery.
