

Funerals

Services for Mary Ann Jones Mitchell were held in the Hooper meeting house on Thursday afternoon with Bishop John Hooper presiding. Francis Russell and Lee Stoddard sang, "Come Unto Me." A male quartet gave "Just Beyond." J. O. Moore sang, "Plains of Peace," and Charles Fowers sang "That's What God Made Mothers For." George Manning sang, "I Know My Redeemer Lives." The choir sang, "Consolation." Opening prayer was given by Orson D. Cottle and benediction by Counselor James E. Widdison. Speakers were J. R. Beus, H. E. Widdison, Francis M. Belnap and Bishop Hooper. Interment was made in the Hooper cemetery and John Naisbitt dedicated the grave.

Services for John Leclair Belnap, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Belnap, were held on Thursday at noon in the Hooper meeting house with Bishop John Hooper presiding. The choir sang, "I Need Thee Every Hour." Mrs. Frances Russell, assisted by the choir, sang, "I Have Read of a Beautiful City." George Manning sang, "The Silent Voice." Lee Stoddard and Joseph Moore sang, "O My Father." Verna Jorgensen and Nola Manning sang, "Jesus, Lover of My Soul." Speakers were President N. A. Tanner, Castle Murphy, Bishop David J. Wilson, J. R. Beus and Bishop Hooper. Opening prayer was given by C. J. A. Lindquist and benediction by John Naisbitt. The grave in the Hooper cemetery was dedicated by J. G. Widdison.

Services for Mrs. Louisa Hatch Malan, Cache valley pioneer woman, were held on Thursday afternoon in the Fifth ward, with Bishop W. H. Petty presiding and with a large attendance. Speakers were Mrs. Jane Turner, Joseph Ririe, Miles L. Jones Bishop T. R. Wheelwright, Mrs. Edward I. Rich and Mayor George E. Browning. Invocation was offered by John L. Barker and benediction pronounced by Austin H. Shaw. Miss Lillian Thatcher played the prelude and Marcellus Smith the postlude. Solos were sung by the following: "I Am A Pilgrim," by Howard Shupe; "O My Father," Mrs. Edna C. Ririe; "Dreaming of Mother," by Bertha Luddington; Christian's Goodnight," by Mrs. Claude Malan. Interment was in the Ogden City cemetery. Bishop Petty dedicated the grave.
