

NAIL WOUND IN FOOT IS FATAL

Fourteen-Year-Old Ogden Boy Dies In Hospital of Lockjaw.

Archibald John Wharton, 14 years of age, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hyrum Wharton, died Monday, in the Dee hospital, of lockjaw. On Saturday, June 25, the boy stepped on a nail, piercing his foot. He drew the nail out and gave the slight wound no further attention. Last Friday while visiting with his parents in Logan he was taken ill and his jaw began to set. He was rushed to the hospital in Ogden where tetanus serum treatments were given but which had little effect.

He was born in Ogden on May 28, 1913, a son of Hyrum P. and Lydia Smeding Wharton, 1939 Eccles avenue, and was a student at the Madison school. Surviving are the parents, one sister, Mainola Frances, the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Smeding and Mrs. Irvine Wharton of Ogden.

Funeral services will be held on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Thirteenth ward chapel, with Bishop A. G. Belnap presiding. The body may be viewed at the home of the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Smeding, 1951 Eccles avenue, on Wednesday from 10 o'clock until time of services. Interment will be made in the Ogden City cemetery under the direction of the Kirkendall mortuary.
