

Funerals

Services for Mildred Jacobs, who was injured last Saturday in St. Anthony, Ida., when thrown from a horse, were held on Thursday afternoon in the Fourth ward chapel, with Bishop E. T. Saunders presiding. J. Albert Erickson played the prelude and postlude on the violin, accompanied by Velva Bachman. Singers were Mrs. Annie Brian and Mrs. Myrtle Price. Opening prayer was given by C. L. Dayley, and the benediction by Hyrum Belnap. Speakers were W. N. Petterson, Bishop H. E. Lund, C. L. Dayley and Bishop Saunders. Boy friends acted as pallbearers and girl friends took charge of the flowers. Interment was made in the Ogden City cemetery and the grave dedicated by Carl A. Lindquist.
