

RITE HELD IN SEVENTH WARD

JOHN L. WILSON

Funeral services for John L. Wilson, pioneer horticulturist, were held on Monday afternoon in the Seventh ward chapel with Bishop W. A. Budge presiding. Prayer at the home was given by James G. McKay. Singers were Mrs. Arta Blakeley, Robert Greenwell and Mrs. Melba Read Jones. Opening prayer was given by Hyrum Belnap and benediction by Counselor Albert E. Read. Speakers were Levi J. Taylor, Miles L. Jones, Apostle David O. McKay and Bishop Budge. Members of the Relief society took charge of the flowers. Ogden stake high priests attended in a body and a large number of friends gathered at the services. Interment was made in the Ogden city cemetery. William B. Moore dedicated the grave.
