Allan Belnap

Allan Leslie Belnap, infant son of Gordon Leslie and Gladys Joy McArthur Belnap, of 2840 Tyler Ave., died yesterday in St. Benedict's Hospital, two hours after birth.

The father is stationed in Korea with the U. S. Army.

Surviving are the parents, the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Arias G. Belnap and Mr. and Mrs. Leslie G. McArthur, Ogden, and a great-grandmother, Mrs. Laneta McArthur, Ogden.

Private funeral services were held today at 1 p. m. in Lindquist and Sons Colonial Funeral Chapel, 3408 Washington Blvd., former Bishop Arias G. Belnap of the LDS Twentieth Ward officiating. Interment was in Washington Heights Memorial Park.

Rev. Mathews

SAN FRANCISCO — Rev. Godfrey Mathews, 71, former minister of the Congregational Church in Ogden, died this morning at his home in San Francisco.

Rev. Mathews was minister of the Ogden church during and a short time after World War I. During the war he was also a newsmen for The Ogden Standard-Examiner.

He was born in Wales and came to the United States just prior to the first World War and served as a chaplain for about six months.

His sister, Miss Grace Mathews, a teacher in Ogden City Schools for many years, left this morning for San Francisco.

Slayer Gets More Time to Appeal

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — The Utah Supreme Court has extended until June 15 the time in which Don Jesse Neal may petition for a rehearing of the high court's refusal to reverse his conviction of murder.

Neal was convicted in Third District Court of killing a Salt Lake City policeman, Sgt. Owen T. Farley. He was sentenced to death but the execution was delayed by the appeal to the Supreme Court.

Police Captain Dies

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — Capt. Martin D. McGinness, 66, for nearly 4 years a member of the Salt Lake City police department, died Thursday. He had been attached to the department's plain clothes division since 1920 and was commander of the unit from 1944 until about a year ago.

Death Held Natural

TOOELE — Sheriff's officers said today no inquest will be conducted into the death of a railroad worker found dead in a box car at Wendover Wednesday. He was identified by papers as James Lemuel Lucon, about 55, Ogden. Officials said death: apparently was caused by a cerebral hemorrhage, and there were no signs of violence.
