

POETRY will be read by Deon Gillespie (center) during talent and dancing show in which other entertainers will be Clearfield Job Corpsman Mark Meredith (left) and Dwayne Carrington, Ogden NAACP youth leader.

LOCAL NAACP CHAPTER PLANS TALENT SHOW, DANCE FRIDAY

SOUTH OGDEN — A talent show and dancing will be presented at the South Ogden Kiwanis Club House, 4200 S. 100 E., Friday at 7:30 p.m.

The show is being staged by the Ogden NAACP youth and college division in cooperation with the Clearfield Job Corps Center.

Theme will be "Asilomar Bound." Poetry will be read by Deon Gillespie.

A dance contest will be held. Featured will be the music of the "Symbolic Sounds" of the Job Corps Center.

Donations of $1.25 will be accepted.

Proceeds will go toward expense of the youth delegation trip to the regional NAACP conference Sept. 14-16 at the Asilomar Fairgrounds at Pacific Grove, Calif., on the Monterey Peninsula.

Bonneville PTA Dates Session on Thursday

WASHINGTON TERRACE — The annual Bonneville Council PTA workshop will be held on Thursday at Bonneville High School.

Under the direction of Mrs. Helen Rogers, council president, the event will begin at 7 p.m. with a receiving line featuring Mrs. Rogers; Mrs. Robert Larson, council 1st vice president; Dr. Varnell Bench, second vice president; Mrs. Marcus Nielsen, third vice president; Mrs. Phillip Wright, secretary-treasurer, and Mrs. Jerry Nelson, Utah State PTA first vice president.

The Bonneville High School band will provide music for the reception.

BUSINESS SESSION

At 7:30 p.m., the business meeting will commence. After brief introductions and announcements, participants will break into designated groups for study and counsel in their particular field of interest.

These groups will be conducted by the council chairman commissioned in each of the following areas:

Green Circle, Mrs. Earl Peterson; hospitality, Mrs. Darold Galloway; legislation, Austin Wahlquist; membership, Mrs. Frank Hersom.

Also mental health, Mrs. Larson; publicity, Mrs. Gary D. Curtis; public relations, Jerry DeGroot; pre-school, Mrs. Louis Wade; scholarship, Mrs. Dallas Buckway; safety, Mrs. Rou Jean Noall; migrant worker project, David Cortez.

10 SCHOOLS

The workshop is open to all PTA workers and interested parties in the ten-school Bonneville Council area.

Participating schools are Bonneville High, T. H. Bell Junior High, South Junior High and Club Heights, H. Guy Child, Marlon Hills, Park View, Burch Creek, Riverdale, Roosevelt and Washington Terrace elementary schools.

Ogdenite to Celebrate 80th Birthday Sunday

In celebration of his 80th birthday, Arias G. Belnap will be honored Sunday at an open house.

Friends and relatives are invited to greet Mr. Belnap from 3 to 6 p.m. that day at his home, 218 Belnap Circle (3225 Liberty). He requests that gifts be omitted.

Born in Hooper on Sept. 6, 1893, Mr. Belnap is the son of Hyrum and Anna Bluth Belnap. He was married to Mabel Harris on Sept. 20, 1916 in the Salt Lake LDS Temple.

IN FIRE

After having been engaged with his father and others in a lumber business which was destroyed by fire in 1931, Mr. Belnap was elected Weber county treasurer in 1934. He held that position until April 1957, when he resigned to become a member of the Utah Tax Commission. He retired in April, 1965.

The couple lived in Salt Lake City during much of that time, but returned to Ogden in 1971. She died April 3, 1972.

Mr. Belnap has been active in the LDS Church, having served a mission to Germany for nine months until he was recalled to the Southern States Mission due to the outbreak of World War I.

Serving as bishop of the Ogden 20th Ward for 17 years as well as in the presidencies of two stakes for a total of 14 years, he has also held many other church positions in both Ogden and in the Wilford Ward in Salt Lake City.

He is the father of five: Dr. Ralph A. Belnap, Dekalb, Ill.; Mrs. Eldred H. (Lois) Erickson, Pleasant View; Mrs. Edwin E. (Mildred) Evans Atlanta, Ga.; and Donald E. Belnap and Gordon L. Belnap, both of Ogden.

Buying Used Patrol Car Considered

HARRISVILLE — A plan to purchase a used Highway Patrol vehicle as a "backup" car for Harrisville policemen has been unanimously adopted by the City Council.

Making the initial recommendation, Mayor Leland Saunders noted that the used Highway Patrol vehicle could be obtained for $1,000 to $1,200 when the state liquidates the year-old vehicles in November.

"All are 1972 models with 40,000 to 50,000 miles and should be in good condition," the mayor told councilmen.

"Since a new car costs around $4,000, I feel that getting an extra car at this price is a good idea," he added.

PRESENT CAR

"If our present police car were to become involved in a crash or need major repairs, our police department could be out of business for an indefinite amount of time."

Mayor Saunders noted that the city's present radar unit is portable and could be used in either vehicle; the only additional equipment needed for the second police vehicle would be a radio and a light bar.

He indicated that a radio costs $594 while a siren-intercom-light bar combination can be purchased for the new unit — bringing a total additional cost of just over $800 to equip the second car.

Mayor Saunders indicated that Lee Cassity, Harrisville's full time police officer was in agreement with the proposal to purchase a second vehicle and Officer Cassity personally indicated that maintenance on two cars would be easier and result in more effective police coverage.

On this basis, Councilman William Shurtleff moved to put in an application for the car and allocated for $1,919 to $2,119 for the second unit depending on its purchase cost.

In other action, the council adopted a specific set of work rules and responsibilities for Harrisville police officers.

OTHER MATTERS

In another matter the City Council has adopted a new planning commission ordinance that consolidates two previous ordinances and eases enforcement of a mandatory 80 per cent attendance clause.

In unanimous action, the council agreed to adopt the new ordinance that retains seven commission members appointed to five-year terms but gives the council discretion to retain any commission member unable to meet the 80 per cent attendance requirement due to legitimate reasons.

EXAMINING trophies they won during the State Junior Poses Championship are James Wayment, Shellie Van Meeteren and Devin Thornock (left to right), all members of the Plain City South Rounders Junior Posse.

STATE COMPETITION

Plain City Posse Nabs Top Honor

PLAIN CITY—The Plain City South Rounders Junior Posse captured the Utah State Junior Posse championships for the third consecutive year at Morgan.

This win brings the revolving trophy in possession of the group to stay. This is the first time the trophy has been won three times consecutively.

The posse won six first places, six second places and on the third in team and individual efforts.

Shellie Van Meeteren was named All-Around Cowgirl in the 12 to 17 age group, after winning the pole bending contest.

Named All-Around Cowboy in the same age group was James Wayment.

He won second place in the stock horse competition.

Devin Thornock placed second in keyhole competition and won All-Around Cowboy in the 8 to 11 age group.

Also placing in competition were Nancy Jensen, first in western pleasure, Russell Van Meeteren, second in pole bending, and Robyn Taylor, third in barrel racing.

The team also received trophies in barrel racing, pole bending, and keyhole. They were competing in a field of 13 posesses.

OGDENITE GETS TRAINING AS AF SPECIALIST

An Ogden man has completed training at Sheppard Air Force Base as part of the Air Force Reserve program.

Airman Kim O. White, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond F. White, 4140 Adams, studied the Air Force's electrical powerline specialist course.

He is returning now to his reserve unit at Hill Air Force Base. He is a 1972 graduate of Weber County Night High School. His wife, Marsha, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Mullins, 2466 Fillmore.

We're Big On Rates!

Daily earnings compounded daily / Credited and paid quarterly

Current Rate per Year	Type of Account	Yield *
5 1/4%	Daily Earning PASSBOOK ACCOUNT	5.39%
5 3/4%	CERTIFICATE ACCOUNT $1,000 minimum Term: 3 months	5.92%
6 1/2%	CERTIFICATE ACCOUNT $1,000 minimum Term: 1 year	6.72%
6 1/2%	CERTIFICATE ACCOUNT $5,000 minimum Term: 2 years	6.72%
6 3/4%	CERTIFICATE ACCOUNT $5,000 minimum Term: 30 months	6.98%
7%	CERTIFICATE ACCOUNT $1,000 minimum Term: 4 years	7.25%
7 1/4%	CERTIFICATE ACCOUNT $5,000 minimum Term: 5 years	7.52%

*Yield is the actual amount earned with F&L daily compounding if the original funds and all earnings remain in the account 12 months.

But there's much more!

Sure the new savings rates are exciting—and we have them!

But we're big on other things, too. Like:

Extra convenience and center of town location.

Fast, friendly service—a tradition for over a half century.

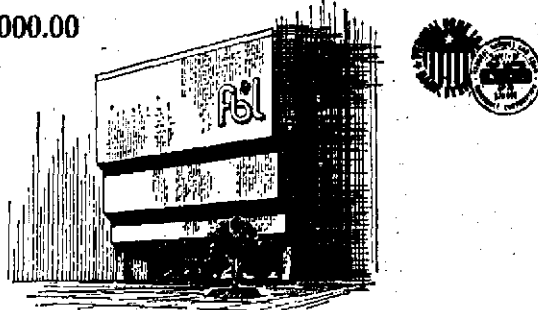

Peace of mind of saving at one of America's strongest savings institutions (insurance of accounts to $20,000 by an agency of the U.S. Government is but a part of F&L's extraordinary built-in safety).

A wide choice of flexible savings plans to fit the needs of all savers, large or small, certificates or passbooks.

Modern, customer designed, pleasant surroundings in which to transact your business.

Assets over $73,000,000.00

F&L

FEDERAL BUILDING AND LOAN

2406 WASHINGTON BLVD. • OGDEN

Juveniles at Moweda Get Reward For Good Classroom Performance

ROY — The vacation from the books is over for youngsters here in Moweda Youth Home, 5500 S. 2700 W., as school there is back in session.

Funded by the Weber School District, the classroom is based on behavior modification theories. Students receive points based on the quality of their work.

"This year we are going to let them use their points to get models and more material things," said Mrs. Michael (Cery) Nash, instructor of the one-room school.

In the past, the youngsters have won candy and soft drinks with their points.

This way the youngsters will have something that lasts and can take home with them. It also gives them something to work on in their free time," said Mrs. Nash.

But since the reward is greater than in the past, the youths will have to work harder.

The new field trip program has been made part of the school activities.

Youngsters will be able to visit historical sites, parks, zoos and other areas.

"Before we would take any youths on these outings we would get the consent of their parents, the juvenile courts, and the social agencies that work with them," said Tony Hassell, director of the youth home.

"Also, we have to take into consideration the accountability of the youth in the community. I think at least 50 per cent of the youngsters here could be trusted in the community," said Mr. Hassell.

HELP SOUGHT

Volunteers are needed to help in the classroom, said Mrs. Nash.

"We only have a maximum of 10 students in the classroom at once, so we can give individualized attention. The more volunteers we have, the more attention the students will get," she said.

Volunteers do not need to have training in education.

"Anyone who is interested in helping is welcome. Last year we had a great group of volunteers from the YWCA," said Mrs. Nash.

Mr. Hassell hopes to soon have funds for an evening arts and crafts instructor at the youth home.

CRAFTS CHOSEN

"Right now the program is being taught by the counselors. The youngsters can make things out of plaster of paris, macrame, water color paintings, wood work, and work on a quilt," said Mr. Hassell.

The youths usually make things they can take home.