

OGDEN DEPARTMENT.

---

The Sugar Factory Road.

The County Commissioners held an adjourned session yesterday and spent most of the time in considering individual tax matters. A considerable number of property owners from Marriott's were present conferring with the Commissioners relative to the opening of the new sugar factory road with a view to settling the condemnation suit. Quit-claim deeds to a large part of the land taken by the proposed new road were deposited with the Commissioners, and the prospect is that the right of way will be secured without litigation.

The Sheriff's Force.

In regard to the reduction of the force in the Sheriff's office the Commissioners yesterday instructed Sheriff Layne to designate the deputies whose services should be discontinued and this will probably be done today.

Funeral of Gilbert Belnap, Sr.

The funeral services over the remains of Gilbert Belnap, Sr., were held yesterday afternoon at the Hooper meeting-house. The remains were brought to Ogden and interred in the city cemetery. The procession of friends was very large and testified the esteem in which the deceased was held in the community where he had lived so long, and was so well known.

Brevities.

Snow fell at intervals nearly all of yesterday.

W. W. Corey came in yesterday from Starbuck, Wash.

William Garland returned yesterday from the Bear River canal.

The public library board will meet this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the library rooms.

The high school boys will hold their dance in the Union opera-house Saturday afternoon.

The funeral of Charles Kessler was held yesterday afternoon from Richey's undertaking parlors.

Mr. Charles H. Skewes of Salt Lake City is in Ogden, assisting Undertaker Richey in a rush of business.

A marriage license was yesterday issued to Joseph F. Critchlow and Miss Julia Atterbeck, and they were married last evening.

The Ladies and Knights of the Maccabees have arranged for an entertainment and banquet at K. of P. hall, next Tuesday evening.

Mrs. C. M. Andrews leaves today for Carlin, Nev., to join her husband, who has recently been promoted to the position of station agent of that place.

Monday evening at the Tabernacle the noted Max Bendix, violinist, and company, will be heard in a musical presentation. The reputation of this company is such that the people of Ogden may expect the most artistic performance of its kind ever presented in Ogden.
