SUSPECT EX-CONVICT SECTION ENDS WITH SHOOTING MURPHY CONFUSION AND RUSH

Police Are Searching for Speaker French Driven From Chair When Committee Kills Pet Measures.

Special to The Tribune.
OGDEN, March 8.—While laboring under the impression that W. M. Watson, the negro now held at the city jail as a suspect, is guilty of the shooting of Patrolmen John J. Murphy and John Hutchinson early Friday morning, there is a possibility that the police have allowed the real criminal to escape. Although Chief of Police W. I. Norton is still convinced that Watson is the man wanted, a search is being made for Eugene Bryan, an ex-convict, who was released from the state prison a few days ago.

The removal of the bullet from Patrolman Murphy's neck today proved an important development. Instead of a 20-caliber, as supposed by the police, it proved to be of a caliber much larger. According to City Physician Walter Whelan, the bullet was at least a 32-caliber and possibly a 38. The bullet was badly mangled by the impact, which struck the officer as he was in a rooming house on the night preceding the attempted murder. It has not been seen since that time. As further evidence against the suspect, it is stated that he is a drug fiend and created a disturbance in the negro section of the city Thursday evening by flourishing the newly-purchased gun.

The case regarding Bryan was furnished by William Maher, a negro held in the county jail to await sentence for burglary. Officers were on Bryan's trail when the shooting occurred and the seemingly positive information from a police officer that he was the man wanted caused a temporary suspension of the search for the negro. Now he is being sought by the police.

Patrolman Murphy recovered nicely from the operation and an address before the county jail. The attending physician has ascertained positively that no bones were fractured, the bullet being lodged in the muscle. It is possible that the officer will be able to resume his duties within a week or ten days.

TO SPEAK TONIGHT.
Governor Hadley of Missouri to Give Postponed Lecture.

Special to The Tribune.
OGDEN, March 8.—After a fruitless effort to secure another date, Chairman L. E. Cowley of the Weber county legislature committee was forced to accept Governor Herbert S. Hadley for a Sunday night engagement and the Missouri executive will be in this city on Tuesday afternoon tomorrow evening. According to the original schedule, Governor Hadley was to have lectured here last night, but he was delayed by a railroad wreck in New Mexico.

According to Mr. Cowley, the distinguished lecturer delivered an address before the legislature last afternoon and will remain in Salt Lake until tomorrow afternoon. In view of the fact that he is expected to be in this city on Tuesday evening, Governor Hadley will deliver a special address which proved popular with many thousands of audiences. His remarks will be etical and along a line suitable to the occasion.

CANNOT PUSH WORK.
Investigation of Proposed Routes to Logan Delayed Until Spring.

Special to The Tribune.
OGDEN, March 8.—Until the roads are in such condition as to permit of travel by automobile there can be no investigation of the proposed electric line to Logan, according to officers of the Ogden Rapid Transit company. It is possible that the inspection of the proposed routes cannot be made before the middle of April.

The plans regarding the Logan line will not interfere with the extension work on the Huntsville line. This extension will be pushed as rapidly as possible after the coming of the new weather. There is a possibility that, should the Bear River valley route be selected, a branch line will be built to connect with the line with the Ogden line, thus furnishing service to all of the principal sections of the north.

HINCHCLIFF FUNERAL TUESDAY.
Resident of Utah for Fifty Years; Born in Scotland.

Special to The Tribune.
OGDEN, March 8.—Funeral services for Mrs. Catherine Hinchcliff, who died at the family residence, 185 Twenty-seventh street, will be held in the Second ward meeting house at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon, with Bishop Robert McQuarrie conducting. The interment will be made in the Ogden City cemetery at 10 o'clock Monday at the home tomorrow and up until noon Monday.

Mrs. Hinchcliff, who was an early settler in this county, was born in Scotland, January 7, 1837. She had resided in Utah for fifty years. The surviving relatives are three daughters, Mrs. N. T. Tanner and Mrs. J. H. Riley, both of Ogden, and Mrs. I. S. Buckwater of Salt Lake, three brothers and ten grandchildren.

SOLONS FAIL TO FINISH SESSION

BOISE, March 8.—After adopting a concurrent resolution to adjourn sine die at 1 a. m., the Idaho house reconsidered, although a concurrent resolution was in the hands of the senate, and at midnight adjourned until tomorrow. The house reconsidered after learning that the senate planned to adjourn at midnight pending the work of the senate. Senate members declare they will adjourn at the hour agreed upon despite the house's later action, and a peculiar parliamentary tangle threatens.

To Investigate Banrock County.
Special to The Tribune.

BOCAVELLO, March 8.—District Judge Alfred Judge has ordered a list of jurors drawn for a grand jury to meet here on March 17. The jury is called to investigate conditions in Banrock county. Numerous charges of bootlegging, open gambling and a rumored shortage in the accounts of a former county official will be investigated in secret session. The courthouse will be examined along with the jail from a sanitary standpoint and it is expected the county will be required to build a jail separate from the courthouse. The names of forty-four jurors will be drawn, twenty for the grand jury and the others for the trial jury for the district court which will convene March 17.

Senate Notes

Judge John F. Childster of Richfield and Will Brown of Sevier, arrived in Salt Lake yesterday to urge the establishment of an automobile route through Salina canyon. Judge Childster thinks the Midland trail should come through Salina canyon to Richfield, circle thrice about the city, and then go south to the Grand canyon of the Colorado.

The senate yesterday received the Midland trail bill from the governor and after amending it slightly passed the bill again. The amendment makes a slight change in the route in the eastern part of the state and provides that counties which have no roads appropriate to the Midland trail bill shall have that amount deducted from that which they would otherwise receive from the general road appropriation.

The Kelly bill providing for the deposit of health certificates by applicants for motor licenses was passed by the senate yesterday. The bill was regarded by many of the senators as being too stringent. Six voted for the bill and nine against it.

The senate yesterday concurred in the house amendments to the Lunt bill for the sinking of artesian wells in dry farming territory and the Ferry hotel inspection bill, though the senate, prior to concurring in the house amendments, voted to kill both bills. The action to reject the bills was taken when there was a bare quorum present and both lacked a constitutional majority. Later the bills were reconsidered and both bills finally passed.

At a conference yesterday afternoon representatives of the municipal league and of the liquor interests agreed to amendments in the house liquor bills now before the senate and, with the amendments, they will be reported favorably to the senate. Representatives of the municipal league consented to the killing of the Lunt bill, which prohibits the shipping of intoxicants from wet to dry territory.

The senate sifting committee decided to report favorably the Wright "anti-money trust" bill, which would prevent the Salt Lake clearing house from establishing a rule fixing the rates of interest or discount to be allowed by the banks.

Twenty-six bills were acted upon yesterday by the senate sifting committee, nineteen of which were reported adversely, one favorably and one without recommendation.

The senate yesterday, by a vote of six to five, killed the bill providing for a teachers' assessment to be raised by the voluntary assessment of teachers of 2 per cent of their annual salaries. The motion was taken hurriedly by the senate after Senator Wright had objected to the measure. Following the session several senators said they had voted against the bill under a misapprehension and it is possible that some action looking to a reconsideration of the measure will be taken. The purpose of the bill was to so amend the present teachers' retirement law in order to provide sufficient revenue to make the plan a success. The features to which most of the objections were already contained in the present law.

In rapid succession and without opposition the senate yesterday passed a series of bills relating to the prosecution of liquor cases in prohibited territory. These bills were passed in the interest of the State League of Municipalities which has been aiding the "dry" cities and towns in the state in efforts to enforce the liquor law. The bills were originally passed by the house and yesterday by the senate after several amendments had been added by the sifting committee.

The sifting committee of the house yesterday held a public hearing on senate bill No. 22, relating to improvement taxes for interchanges. (George M. Cannon, N. V. Jones, Lafayette Hanchett, chairman of the public parks and improvements committee of the Commercial club, appeared before the committee in support of the bill. C. W. Collins, L. H. Dabbs, E. B. Richards and Dr. A. H. Taylor and another large delegation, spoke in opposition to the bill. The committee deferred action.)

Warner's Fashion

Just as there is a fashion for dress, there is a fashion for corsets. The dress is the outward expression, but the corset is the hidden cause, and the daintiest dress hangs limp and shapeless if the corset is not in harmony with fashion's lines.

Authoritative Styles

If your corset is a Warner's, you are assured that your figure style is right.

Every Warner is kept "up to the minute" in style. Your merchant has no Warner corset that is not in keeping with the season's dress.

Of course they are comfortable—we do not recognize one type of figure only, but every type of form, and each design is tested on a living model. Your dealer guarantees your Warner's to you not to rust, not to break, not to tear, and to wear as long as you want a corset to wear.

Are you thinking about your Spring clothes? It is time—Warner's Spring and Summer models are at your store and you can buy your corset now.

Do you like a Brassiere?—Warner's Brassieres supplement the low bust corset of today—dainty and perfect fitting, they are Warner quality throughout. That is why they are so comfortable, and fit so well and are so pretty.
