The roads are in a muddy state.

The schools will open with the beginning of October.

The Trustees will meet as a board of equalization, on Monday, Sept. 22, at 3 p.m.

Fruit is plentiful. The trees are bending to the ground under their heavy burden of apples.

This morning, Mr. Manasseh Collinson returned from a pleasant visit to Salt Lake City.

The rains have injured some of the grain, much of which is yet in the field. All of it will have to be re-shocked. Only a small part of the threshing is done.

The Y. M. M. I. A. will realize about 100 bushels of wheat from their crop, this season. The means will be spent to enlarge the library and for other equally worthy purposes.

A juvenile martial band under the leadership of Brother Alfred DeBell has been organized in the east end of the Ward. The boys gathered their own subscriptions, amounting to $50, and purchased and paid for their own instruments. They have only practised a short time, but are already able to give creditable pieces for the edification and pleasure of the residents of the Ward.

An interesting meeting of the two Young Men's Associations of the Ward was held in the West school-house, on Tuesday evening, Sept. 9. Elders E. H. Anderson, M. F. Cowley, A. D. Chambers, Bishop Taylor, and others attended and some of them addressed the meeting. The officers for the East Ward were sustained as follows: Noah L. Shurtliff, president, Richard D. Brown and Alfred K. De Bell, counselors; N. J. Harris, and Dennison Harris, secretaries; Green Taylor, treasurer; Martin H. Harris, librarian. The officers for the West Ward are: Jacob C. Thomas, president; N. W. Taylor, James Martin, counselors; Peter C. Stephensen, Eli McIntire, secretaries; N. W. Taylor, treasurer; Victor C. Hegsted, librarian.
