

Gen, shaking hands with hundreds of old friends. Mr. Klemm is one of the pioneer business men of Dillon, having been in the banking business there since the town was laid out as terminus of the Utah & Northern railroad. He has grown and prospered with his town, and he never forgets his old Utah friends.

Messrs. F. R. Colburn and E. S. Iverson, are two enterprising young men from Iowa attracted to Utah by the fame of the great Bear river valley. The gentlemen have settled in Corinne, and will engage in the general furniture and hardware business. They show good judgment in buying their stock from Ogden jobbers.

Professor Squire Coop will conduct a private rehearsal of the works of Mozart on Sunday evening, January 27th, the 139th anniversary of the natal day of that world-renowned musician, at the Chickering piano rooms, 2583 Grant avenue. Those fortunate enough to have invitations will be favored with a rare treat.

Reduction in coal:—On and after January 22th, 1895, the coal dealers will reduce coal as follows:

|                                       |                |
|---------------------------------------|----------------|
| All kinds of lump delivered.....      | $4.25         |
| Rock Springs                          | } ..... $4.25 |
| Black Butte                           |                |
| Castle Gate                           |                |
| Pleasant Valleyor Winter Quarters |                |
| Slack—All kinds.....                  | $2.75         |

No credit extended to any one.

All sales must be cash.

L. FARR COAL CO.
PARKER & ROSS.
SHEALY & RANDALL.
UNION COAL YARD.
SHURILIFF & ROBISON.

L. R. Rogers and H. H. Spencer went north to Focatello last evening.

Judge Maglioni is confined to his bed today, but not thought to be dangerously ill.

D. R. Gray, Southern Pacific passenger agent in Salt Lake City, was in Ogden today on business.

There will be a public meeting of the chamber of commerce next Tuesday evening at the city hall.

Judge Patton has been suffering several days with a bilious attack but expects to come down town in a day or two.

S. L. Laing, a representative hardware salesman from Chicago, is making his annual call upon Ogden merchants today.

Mr. Vernon R. Andrew recently of Ohio, now a resident of Ogden, was yesterday admitted to practice in the Utah supreme court.

The Abraham Lincoln club will meet tonight, Friday, in the mayor's office, city hall, at 7:30 p. m. All members are urged to attend.

Mrs. W. A. Simons, mother of Mrs. O. I. Lawton of this city, is reported very ill at Corning, Iowa. Mrs. Lawton will leave for the east tonight.

We defy the bankers' coal company to compete with us in quality or clean coal. We are exclusive agents for all but surface coal. Coal Exchange.

Rev. Samuel Cates, will preach in the Methodist church this evening. Public cordially invited. The pastor would like to see all the members at the services.

The name of Professor M. M. Smart, billed to recite at the G. A. R. entertainment tonight, was made by a typographical error to appear Sneath in yesterday's issue.

WHEELMEN ATTENTION.—Samples of Czar bicycles will be exhibited at the Reed hotel Saturday, January 26th. Do not fail to see them, as an agency will be placed in Ogden.

The local council Royal Arcanum is experiencing a season of unusual activity, several of Ogden's substantial business men having been recently added to the list of members.

The funeral services over the remains of Agnes, daughter of Thomas and Mary Hanley, will be held at the family residence, 2976 Washington avenue, tomorrow, Saturday, at 10 o'clock a. m.

The report of Geo. J. Kelly, W. L. Buswell and James G. Paine, appraisers of the estate of Homer A. Walker, deceased, shows the amount of real and personal property to be $6,310.54.

Mrs. George H. Islaub, is quite seriously ill with pleura pneumonia. There has not been much change in her condition during the past twenty-four hours, yet hopes are entertained for her recovery.

The regular annual meeting of the Public Library association for the election of officers, occurs on Wednesday evening, January 30th, at the City hall. Professor Lewis has kindly consented to give an address and some excellent music will be rendered.

Mr. Nathan J. Harris of Harrisville, practicing law in Ogden, was admitted to the supreme court of Utah upon his diploma from Ann Arbor and the certificate from the supreme court of Michigan which goes with all diplomas from the law school connected with the Michigan university.

There will be a general reunion of all members of the Fourth ecclesiastical ward tonight in the amusement hall on Monroe avenue. Supper will be served at 5:30 o'clock, and then will come sociability, reminiscences and a jolly good dance. It will be a genuine good old-fashioned visit for old and young alike.

Otto Kleum, cashier of the First National bank at Dillon, Montana, is in Og-