John Henry Smith, N. J. Harris and Dr. Condon Spéak.

Last evening the Republican rally held at Thomas' hall was a grand success. The house was well filled and enthusiasm ran high throughout the speech-making. Nathan J. Harris was the first speaker. He was well received and his sound speech on the important issues of the campaign brought forth much applause and enthusiasm. Dr. Condon followed with a clear, most interesting and eloquent speech, enunciating the principles of Republicanism. Hon. John Henry Smith was the main speaker of the evening. For almost an hour and a half he held the audience in rapt attention with his able arguments dressed in oratory. He spoke on nearly every national issue of the day as well as upon the local questions. His speech provoked loud applause throughout and much enthusiasm.
