

RANDOM REFERENCES.

Wanted woman for 2nd cook. Central hotel.

All kinds of meat, but one kind of quality at Weatherby's.

Stop at Weatherby's and order something for dinner on your way to the office.

Geo. A. Eaton was up from the capital Saturday and Sunday visiting friends.

Scientific embalming, faultless goods, perfect service in every particular. Albert F. Richey.

Grand Ball at Southwell's Hall, Wednesday, November 7th. Ford's Orchestra. Car after dance.

L. R. Rogers was an Ogden visitor yesterday. He says he did not come up on political matters.

Maillard's Famous Chocolate Don Bons, Licorices and Breath Perfumers just received at Hess' Bakery.

PERSONAL—Jack: When you pay that bet get the Hat at THE HUB. They carry all the leading makes—Dunlap—Stetson and Young's—Charley.

Frank Cannon and most of his legislative ticket were down in the railroad shops today soliciting votes.

Josh Grant is a proud man today. He is the happy possessor of a new badge symbolizing "Protection." It is the only badge of its kind in Utah and was sent direct to Mr. Grant from New York. Josh is so proud of his badge that he keeps a cover on it.

One of the finest new residences in the city, and which is now rapidly nearing completion, is that of George Mole at 257 Lincoln avenue. Mr. Mole purchased the Hassett residence, and has made of it an almost new place, with circle porch and turret, and the lot measures 99 feet front, making a beautiful acquisition to the Ogden residence portion.

The Standard is advised that the W. W. Browning Printing Co. is getting out a circular making some statements about certain candidates, which is to be distributed after the Standard is published tonight. If such a circular is issued the public will please bear in mind that it should have no honest consideration, because such a circular published at the last moment when it cannot be answered is on its face a fraud and is dishonest, because an honest man is ever willing to give his opponent a fair chance to answer all charges made.

The Grouse Creek Mining and Milling company have just placed a contract for the extension of their tunnel for the second 100 feet. The contract was let to Mr. John Cleghorn, who run the first hundred feet and who is a mining man of much experience. Mr. Cleghorn has faith in the company's claims and prospects, and shows it by taking one-third of the contract price in stock of the company.

Last night the newspapers were represented at a special dinner given by Messrs. Magny & Ellis, at their new restaurant, The Grill, 266 Twenty-fifth street. The Standard, Tribune and Herald men were there, and one of the most delicious repasts ever served in the city was placed before them. Champagne and cigars closed the menu and full and complete satisfaction is the evidence that justice was done by those present, and J. E. Davenport was also a guest.

The street department is going through the regular annual routine work of removing a large amount of extra dirt and filth from Washington avenue. This is done every year, and in the spring some more will be hauled back again. More than enough money has been expended on this sort of work than would have paved the district affected.

Nathan J. Harris has a circular out telling the people that Wm. Glasmann supported Bryan in 1896. He has just found out that Mr. Glasmann is for McKinley said a man. "Nathan is just four years behind time. He has been hypnotized and thinks the 20,000 Republicans who voted for Bryan in 1896 are still for Bryan." Wake up Nathan. "The world do move;" McKinley is the man and Glasmann is for him.

The board of education are conducting a campaign against the proposed amendment to the state constitution relative to the school law. The board insist that each district should, as in the past, pay the expenses of its own schools, and have issued a circular against the amendment.

Billy Wilson had conducted county matters on a business plan when in office and he saw that the books of the county and business of the county were in good shape. Would an investigation of his opponents two years business show up as well? Moral: Vote for Billy Wilson, a man who was proven by his enemies to be right.

Tomorrow night "A Wise Guy" will be at the Grand Opera House. It is said to be a fun starter and that is what the people want.

The Standard will display bulletins by means of a stereopticon tomorrow night. They will begin about 6 o'clock.

Ex-Senator Brown was up from the Capital today.

A. E. Morrison, adjudged insane, was taken to Provo today by Deputy Sheriff Bailey. He was to have gone east tomorrow on a visit to his old home in Boston and the excitement of anticipation turned his mind.

In Police court this morning Judge Hall had up before him three men named Murray, Caldwell and Hooper, on charge of stealing five meal tickets from the Grand Pacific restaurant. They had presented two of them and used them. They plead not guilty and their hearing was set for Thursday. One drunk was let go.

Petition was filed in the District court by Mary Ann Gilmore asking for appointment as guardian of eight minors.