

RANDOM REFERENCES

If you desire to talk to the editor or reporters of the Standard or Examiner always call up phone 56 TWO RINGS. For the subscription and business office call up the same phone ONE RING. Don't forget this. —

Mrs. W. E. Bell of Lakeside is visiting friends in Ogden. She will remain in the city a number of days.

U. P. Rock Springs, Castle Gate lump and nut and Clear Creek lump, $5.00 at yard, $5.75 delivered. Gillette Coal Co., 153 West 27th St. Phones 1074. —

Thomas Smyth Reported Improved.
Thomas Smyth, who was quite badly injured in an automobile collision with a street car Saturday afternoon, is reported much improved. He is at the General hospital.

Do not feed bad hay. Give your order to H. C. Farrell and have it filled with good, bright valley hay. Both phones. —

D. E. Dalgior and wife of Butte, Montana, are spending a few days with Ogden friends.

COAL—Rock Springs, Castle Gate, Diamond and Kenilworth—$5.00. John Farr, Phone 27. —

C. Burg of Wells, Nevada, is in Ogden on business and to visit with friends.

Advertisers must have their copy for the Evening Standard the evening before the day on which the advertisement is to appear in order to insure publication. —

George Roberts of Honefer dropped off in Ogden yesterday to look after business interests.

Ask your friends what they know about TOP KNOT WHISKEY. They will say, "It is the highest grade of Kentucky distillation." —

T. P. Carlos of Layton came down from the Davis county town yesterday to meet with friends.

Order monuments and headstones from the large and new stock of Jos. Parry & Sons' Co., 2253 Washington avenue. —

J. W. Young of Los Angeles, California, is in town.

Garden seeds, flower seeds, bulbs, rose bushes and potted plants of all kinds. Pingree Feed Store, 2572 Washington. —

Mrs. Mary Stewart Dead.
Mrs. Mary Stewart, wife of the late John Stewart of Plain City, died at the residence of her grand-daughter, Mrs. W. F. Smithen, 2516 Orchard avenue, last evening at 5 o'clock, of paralysis. Mrs. Stewart was born in Wales in the year 1828, and came to America while very young, living most of her life in North Carolina. She came to Plain City in 1894, where she spent the balance of her days. She was a highly respected woman, and she leaves many friends and relatives to mourn her death. The time and place of the funeral will be announced later.

Sweet Peas and Nasturtium Seed in bulk. Barrows Com. Co. —

Mrs. J. T. Carruth of Blackfoot, Idaho, is visiting with Ogden friends.

E-Z-Money-Kelley—Money to loan on any good real estate. Gen. J. Kelley.—

Child Has Smallpox.
A child of I. T. Alvord of North Ogden is afflicted with smallpox. The health officer there states that there are other cases of illness that are suspected as being smallpox.

White rags wanted at the Standard office. —

Attention Called to Gambling.
Sheriff B. B. Wilson and County Attorney Nathan J. Harris were the recipients of a letter Saturday, which was signed by twenty-four citizens and business men, calling specific attention to a number of places in Ogden where gambling is openly carried on, and asking that some action be taken to prevent the maintenance of such places.

Smoke the Peter Pan 5c cigar. —

Funeral of J. H. Goodwin.
Funeral services over the remains of J. H. Goodwin will be held at Evanston tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mr. Goodwin was formerly a resident of Ogden.

Funeral of John B. Cary.
Funeral services over the remains of John B. Cary were held at Lindquist's funeral chapel this afternoon at 2 o'clock. The services were presided over by the Rev. Alfred Brown of the Episcopal church, and the interment took place in Mountain View cemetery.

Going to Logan.
W. H. Homer of Logan stopped off in Ogden yesterday to give his famous stallion, Coco, that he is shipping home from Columbus, Ohio, a chance to rest up a little. Mr. Homer recently purchased the animal and is now taking him to his Cache valley farm. Coco is a fine animal of the Percheron stock and weighs 2,200 pounds. The horse is valued at $5,000. Mr. Homer says the horse took the first prize at the International stock show in Chicago last year and has taken a number of prizes in Europe. According to statements of Homer industrial conditions in the east are remarkably good. He says that prices on all kinds of stock and produce are good and there seems to be plenty of money in the country. He will go to Logan this morning.

C. F. Steinbach of Colorado Springs, Colorado, is in Ogden investigating certain business interests.

Mrs. Ed. Chatelaine has gone to Le Grande, Oregon, for a short visit with relatives and friends.

Burial of Baby Sherner.
A large number of friends met at the Lynn meeting house yesterday afternoon to attend the funeral of William L. Sherner, the ten-months-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Sherner. The services were presided over by Bishop George Smuin. The ward choir sang "Rest," Miss Myrtle Leavitt rendered the solo "O, My Father," and Lizzie Norseth, the selection "Your Sweet Little Rose Bud;" Ella Shupe and Lottie Christopherson sang the duet "Sleep On, Beloved," and Myrtle Leavitt and Hilda Nordquist rendered the duet "Softly and Tenderly, Jesus Is Calling." The speakers were Bishop Smuin, President C. F. Middleton and Elder Walter Crane.

Committed to Industrial School.
Harry Jackson, aged 17, and Willie Smith, aged 16, of Salt Lake, have been committed to the State Industrial school for incorrigibility. They were sent from Judge Gowan's court.

Prof. Cloyd Invited to Give Address.
Sunday night, April 5th, Prof. Cloyd, of the Ogden High school, will speak at the Congregational church by invitation of Rev. Elderkin, on the subject, "Why I Belong to a Church." The lecture will be given in answer to Mrs. Kate S. Hilliard, who lectured last night on "Why I Belong to No Church."

State Organizer.
A. G. Smith of Salt Lake, state organizer for the Royal Highlanders, is in Ogden for the purpose of organizing a castle of his order here.