ECA Saved Italy From Reds, Says Speaker

"Without the help of the ECA program, Italy would have been communist by now," a Rotary club guest speaker declared yesterday afternoon.
Howard R. Cottam, counsellor of the embassy and chief of food, agricultural division of the ECA mission to Italy, said communists are in the minority in Italy and there are very few followers of Mussolini.
"The people of Italy are more favorable to the United States than

"We have studied what is going on abroad. We are trying to raise their standard of living so they can buy our products. We are trying to sell our way of life. We are

Circus Praises Ogden Police

"Few police departments have cooperated with us like yours," Chief of Police Maurice J. Schooff was informed today in a letter from the police chief of Ringling Brothers and Barnum and Bailey circus.
Circus Police Chief William H. Reynolds wrote to Schooff that the local department handled the situation with dispatch, adding that throughout the circus's itinerary, not many police departments have done as well.
At Saturday's "big top" extravaganza traffic was lined two abreast for blocks in every direction from

Thirty-third and Wall, where the tents went up.
It was estimated about 11,000 saw the three-ring show alone, not counting side show crowds. Police were on the hop for hours directing traffic and otherwise overseeing matters at the teeming grounds.
Will Buy Springboard
